ATHERTON AND ASHCRAFT WINNERS

The Opening Chapter of "Married Strangers" appears in the Advocate on Monday, Nov. 17th.

NATIONAL LEADERS STUDY RESULTS OF TUESDAY'S ELECTION

SEEK INDICATION OF DRIFT OF POPULAR SENTIMENT PREPARATORY TO NATIONAL ELECTION NEXT YEAR.

SOCIALIST BEATEN IN MISSISSIPPI; COOLIDGE'S COURSE WINS APPROVAL

Republican Governor Elected in Kentucky While Democratic Probably Will Be Choice in New Jersey—Tammany Hall Beaten in New York.

More complete returns today on the official elections yesterday in several states did not change the outcome in any important respect. The smashing victory of Calvin Coolidge, Republican, in Massachusetts, re-elected to succeed himself as governor by the largest vote ever polled by a gubernatorial candidate in that state, shared honors with an almost equally decisive dry victory in Ohio as the most striking result of the voting.

As a possible indication of the drift of popular sentiment preparatory to the national elections next year, yesterday's results were being closely scrutinized by party leaders. Kentucky was swept into the Republican fold in the governorship fight, but today's returns made it certain that New Jersey had reverted to the Democratic column.

RURAL VOTE WILL GIVE MAJORITIES ON DRY MEASURES

Big Cities Return Wet Majorities But These Will Be Wiped Out By Country Vote.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—Additional returns received up to noon today by Secretary of State Smith served only to substantiate earlier predictions that the dries carried all four prohibition proposals by big majorities at yesterday's election. Chief Statistician Johnson of the secretary's office said the dry majorities would reach 75,000, bearing out the claims made last night by dry leaders.

Mr. Johnson said he based his estimate upon practically complete returns from 36 out of the 88 counties. Though the returns so far received show substantial wet majorities on their face, the chief statistician pointed out that the returns were practically all from the larger cities and wet centers.

The tabulation included complete returns from 100,000 voters in Franklin county, Cincinnati and Hamilton county, Columbus and Franklin county and almost complete returns from a number of other large cities and counties.

Very few rural precincts were included in the returns tabulated and when all the rural precincts are in, Johnson said the apparent wet majorities would be turned into substantial dry majorities. He pointed out that the dry gains are noted in rural returns so far received, and that press reports show large dry gains in other districts.

Votes tabulated on the classification of the returns from the same precincts are said to indicate defeat of the proposal by more than 100,000 majority and officials at the secretary of state office say it may reach 150,000 or even more.

The vote in the 36 counties tabulated was:
Legalizing sale of 2 3/4 per cent liquor, yes 265,994; no, 235,311.
Repealing state wide prohibition yes 256,464; no 214,073.

Approving ratification of the federal prohibition amendment yes 212,744; no 273,595.
Approving Cragin prohibition enforcement measure, yes 202,441; no 275,410.

The wets appeared to have made their best showing on the Cragin prohibition enforcement bill and the poorest showing on their effort to repeal state wide prohibition. On the precincts tabulated they have a majority of 74,000 against the Cragin bill and about 42,000 on the repeal proposition.

GALEMAN IS ELECTED.
Portsmouth, Nov. 5.—Although Wm. N. Galeman, Democrat, was elected mayor of Portsmouth over Captain W. J. Keyes, Republican by a majority approaching 500, the remainder of the Republican municipal ticket was elected by comfortable majorities. Former prosecuting attorney Horace L. Small, Democrat, defeated former state representative W. R. Sprague in the race for the newly created office of municipal judge. A $70,000 bond issue for a new children's home carried.

MAINE APPROVES SUFFRAGE
Augusta, Maine, Nov. 5.—The amendment to the federal constitution giving women the right to vote was ratified in the house today in concurrence with the senate. The vote was 72 to 68.

GOVERNMENT WILL NOT WITHDRAW ITS INJUNCTION

Refuses Suggestion of Miners That Action Would Mean Settlement.

OFFICIAL SAYS U. S. WILL NOT STAND LAW VIOLATION

Miners Declare Refusal Means Long Drawn Out Struggle.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The government cannot accept the proposal of organized labor to end the coal strike by vacating the injunction against the officers of the United Mine Workers of America. Assistant Attorney General Ames in the absence of Attorney General Palmer announced today that the government could not abandon its position because the strike was in violation of law. Judge Ames issued the following statement:

"The strike is a violation of law. As long as it continues, we are going to proceed in the courts. The dispute between the mine owners and workers is an entirely different question that they can settle in their own way. The government cannot tolerate continued violation of the law such as this strike constitutes."

Refusal of the government to vacate the injunction means a long fight in the coal fields while its withdrawal would have opened the way for settlement of the strike within 48 hours, according to Edgar Wallace, executive representative of the United Mine Workers of America.

"If the injunction were withdrawn the scale committees, representing miners and operators could get together in 24 hours and settle their differences at one sitting," Wallace said.

"The strike, however, would not be called off until a new wage agreement was reached. The miners' committee, with power to accept the new agreement, could call off the strike without referring the question to a delegate convention, Wallace said.

"President Lewis' statement that the miners would be willing to negotiate without reservations," he added, "simply means that he would start with a new slate, without regard to previous demands, which the operators refused to grant."

These demands were a five day week, a six hour day and a wage increase of 60 percent. Wallace explained, however, that they were not arbitrary but were put forward as a basis of negotiation.

The government was faced today with a new development in the soft coal strike situation by the statement of Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, that if the federal injunction were withdrawn a way would be opened for settlement of the difficulty.

Minutal of the effect of the statement might have in fixing responsibility for continuation of the strike, government officials planned to go into this phase (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4.)

CHILD SERIOUSLY INJURED BY AUTO

Mary Jones Struck While Crossing South Fifth Street From Grocery.

Mary Jones, the 4 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones of 200 South Fifth street was badly injured when she was struck by a machine near her home Tuesday evening, at 5:30 o'clock.

The child in company with another little girl had gone to a grocery near her home. In some way in attempting to cross the street, she was struck by a machine driven by John Miller, corner of Prospect and National Drive. She was removed to the City hospital where it was found her right leg had been broken. It is not determined whether she suffered internal injuries. Dr. H. H. Postle is the attending physician.

KARB BEATEN IN HIS SIXTH RACE

Columbus Mayor Loses Campaign In Many Years of Political Life—Winner Has 4895 Plurality.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—Mayor George J. Karb of Columbus, yesterday suffered his first defeat as a candidate for public office. He was a candidate for reelection as mayor for a sixth term. He has served more than 20 years as mayor and sheriff of Franklin county.

His successful opponent yesterday was James J. Thomas, Republican, present city clerk. Thomas received a plurality over Mayor Karb of 4,895 on all choice tickets the vict being Karb, 25,238; Thomas, 31,134.

"MARRIED STRANGERS" STARTS NOV. 17TH.

Frances Durall's new story "Married Strangers" of compelling interest to men and women alike will appear in this newspaper. The Advocate has just purchased the right of publication which will begin with the issue of November 17th.

A girl, young, independent, impulsive, thrilling with life and romance of war meets a newly-made young officer and marries him after a whirlwind courtship. There is a three-day honeymoon and he sails for France. Sustained by the tonic of patriotism of flying flags and crashing bands and long olive drab columns marching away to face death on the battlefields of France, she loves him unquestionably through his two years' absence. Then he returns, a stranger. Tastes, training habits, the slow steps to understanding over which they had leaped with youthful arrogance rear ugly heads. How they solved their problems and reached the basis on which a real marriage is founded constitute the story.

"Married Strangers" is by the same author who wrote "The Adventures of a Married Man."

Watch for the opening chapter on Monday, November 17th. This attractive story will be presented in short installments from day to day beginning one week from next Monday.

SNOW FOLLOWS ELECTION ALONG SHORES OF LAKE

Ashtabula, Nov. 5.—Snow which began to fall here at 8 o'clock last night and fell nearly continuously throughout the night, is still falling intermittently this morning, melting however, as fast as it strikes the ground.

The driving snow storm was so blinding late last night and early this morning that the handling of traffic was extremely difficult, autoists being unable to keep the wind shields of their machines clear of the snow.

Returned are continuing to come into the wet headquarters here today and according to Gibson are showing numerous wet gains.

WILSON SENDS HIS BEST WISHES

Tells Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts That His Election Is Victory For Law and Order.

Washington, Nov. 5.—President Wilson from his sick bed today telegraphed Governor Calvin Coolidge, of Massachusetts, congratulating him on his reelection, which the president said was "a victory for law and order."

The telegram follows:
"Hon. Calvin Coolidge, Boston, Mass.: 'I congratulate you upon your election as a victory for law and order. When that is the issue all Americans stand together.'"
(Signed) "Woodrow Wilson."

WOULD PROTECT RAILROADS.
Washington, Nov. 5.—Temporary legislation continuing government guaranteed returns to the railroads after their return to private control January 1, such time as congress can enact permanent legislation virtually were decided upon today by the senate interstate commerce committee.

GIBSON CLAIMS VOTE IS CLOSE

Refuses to Concede Defeat of All Proposals Dealing With Prohibition—Says 2.75 Beer Proposal is Close.

Cincinnati, Nov. 5.—L. H. Gibson, manager of the Ohio Home Rule Association at noon today stated that the wets would not concede that the dries had carried all four prohibition proposals in Ohio.

He said the 2.75 beer proposal was very close and that figures received by him indicated that the Cragin act had been repudiated by the people. Ratification of nation wide prohibition, Gibson stated, has probably been defeated by the wets, while state wide prohibition has been carried by the dries by from 35,000 to 50,000.

Returns are continuing to come into the wet headquarters here today and according to Gibson are showing numerous wet gains.

RITCHIE IS ELECTED NEW JERSEY GOVERNOR

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 5.—Albert C. Ritchie, Democrat, was elected governor over Harry W. Nice, Republican, by a plurality of approximately 900 votes, at yesterday's election in Maryland according to unofficial returns and estimates received up to 1 o'clock this afternoon. It was the closest election ever held in Maryland.

FRAZIER WINS RACE.
B. S. Frazier, Republican, was elected mayor of Dresden over Robert Butler, Democrat, by 115 votes.

MAYOR'S MAJORITY IS 213; ASHCRAFT IS ELECTED BY 448

ADMINISTRATION OF BOTH DEMOCRATIC OFFICIALS RECEIVE ENDORSEMENT OF VOTERS ON TUESDAY.

BOLTON ELECTED FIRST JUDGE OF NEW MUNICIPAL POLICE COURT

Republicans Elect Cliff Frye, Auditor; Roy Marvin, Treasurer, and H. H. Scott President of Council; Faust Knauer and Bazler Are Councilmen at Large.

Mayor H. A. Atherton and Henry C. Ashcraft were returned winners on the Democratic ticket at yesterday's election, after one of the hardest fought political battles of recent years.

R. L. Williams, present president of the city council, was defeated for reelection on the Democratic ticket by H. H. Scott and Bert O. Horton, Democratic candidate for auditor and Guy W. Lawver, Democratic candidate for treasurer, were defeated by Cliff Frye and Roy E. Marvin, Republicans. P. W. Faust, Democrat, T. A. Bazler and Frank Knauer, Republicans, were re-elected councilmen-at-large.

Two new faces will be found in the city council after the first of the year, Fred Wolverton, Democrat, defeated J. R. Ashbrook, Republican, in the second ward by a majority of 140 and George Gearhart, Republican, was elected over Charles Spees, Democrat, by a majority of 32 in the sixth ward. Charles Redman, Republican, had no opposition in the first ward and J. Phil Baker, Democrat, had no opposition in the third T. D. Keyes, Republican, defeated Carl Yontz, Democrat, by a majority of 89 votes in the fourth ward and S. O. Riggs, Republican, defeated W. H. Butler, Jr., Democrat, by a majority of 14 votes in the fifth ward. There will now be six Republicans in the city council with three Democrats and a Republican presiding officer.

A total vote of 5,141 was cast for the head of the ticket, and it was not as large as had been predicted. After the polls closed and the count began, there was less interest manifested in the result than in previous years, this fact being demonstrated by the crowds on the street not being as large and fewer telephone calls being received.

The first precinct reported officially at 8:15 at the board of elections was Newark township north. This was followed intermittently by others during the night until the last reported at 2:15 o'clock this morning and the official locked up to receive the country precincts returns this morning.

The dry organization carried their four issues in the city, the repeal of the Cragin law being defeated by a majority of 223. The amendment for exemption, which would permit the manufacture of 2 1/2 alcoholic beverages was only defeated in the city by 16 votes. The repeal of state wide prohibition was defeated by 67 votes and the ratification of the dry amendment carried by 92.

The classification of property in the city was defeated by a majority of 37. The two mill special tax levy proposition carried by a majority of 528. The result of its fate will not be known until all country districts have reported and the vote tabulated.

The surprise of the day was furnished by the city firemen and they proved that they are past masters of the art of politics. Their initiative on the double platoon proposition for the city, carried by a vote of 3,031 in its favor against 1,528 against it a majority of 1,503, almost two to one.

WHITE CLAIMS 50,000 FOR DRY PROPOSALS

Columbus, Nov. 5.—James A. White, head of the Ohio Dry Federation, this morning reiterated his prediction of last night that the dries won on all four prohibition proposals by majorities ranging from 50,000 to 75,000. He is sure this statement in Newark returns confirm his prediction of last night that Ohio voted dry on all four proposals by from 50,000 to 75,000 majorities.

VOTERS ENDORSE EXPENDITURE BUT MONEY LACKING

More Than $25,000 Said to Have Been Added to Yearly Budget By Voters Tuesday.

At Tuesday's election the voters gave their approval to measures which will increase the operating expenses of the city of Newark over $25,000 in spite of the fact that the city at the present time is penniless. Salaries of firemen and policemen have not been paid for two weeks, and there is no money with which to meet the demand.

Among the innovations which will bring about increased operating expenses will be the double platoon system for the fire departments which carried at yesterday's election. This will increase the cost of the safety department about $25,000 a year.

While it is expected that the new municipal court, which is to be created will be self-sustaining, should it fail to be so the expense will be borne jointly by the county and city. Under the statutes, the maximum salary to be paid the judge is $3,000 a year. The council has agreed to pay $2,000 of this (Continued on Page 11, Col. 3)

OHIO VICTORY IS BLOW TO WETS

Defeat of Referendum Spells Disaster For Whole Wet Movement in Nation Wheeler Declares.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Defeat of the referendum on the federal prohibition amendment in Ohio "spells disaster for the whole wet referendum movement in the United States," Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon League in America, declared in a statement here today.

"November 4," Mr. Wheeler said, "will have a place in history because it has settled the wet referendum issue and the issue of law and order and Americanism."

ONLY SOCIALIST ELECTED.
Portsmouth, Nov. 5.—New Boston, a village of 4,500, just east of this city, has the distinction of being the only town in Ohio to elect a Socialist mayor at Tuesday's election. J. S. Davis, who has held the office twice before, was elected by 20. A combination with a defeated Republican candidate for mayoralty nomination put Davis across.

LAST OF WAR BRIDES DEPART FOR AMERICA

Brest, Tuesday, Nov. 4.—The last of the war brides of American soldiers left here yesterday for the United States on the steamship Northern Pacific. There were nine of them. On the President Grant Sunday 173 emarked. This completes the "war brides work" of the Young Women's Christian association. Mr. Seymour, the Y. W. C. A. executive, in charge of relief work said:

"I am proud of our American boys. As far as known only one bride is coming from 3,600 sent to the United States."

Of this total, three fifths of the number were French, one fifth English and the other fifth scattered among 31 nationalities. The brides ranged from 15 to 55 years of age. Some of them had three or four children by previous marriages.

3 DEMOCRATS IN NEW COUNCIL

President Williams is Defeated For Re-election and Only Two Democratic Ward Councilmen are Elected.

The new city council will line up next January with a majority of three Republican votes because of the results of Tuesday election. Aside from the president of council, which will be Republican, the Democrats will have but three men. Councilman-at-large Peter Faust; Second Ward Councilman Fred Wolverton, who defeated J. R. Ashbrook, and Third Ward Councilman J. Phil Baker, who was elected without opposition. H. H. Scott defeated R. L. Williams as president of council. Williams being a candidate for his second term. WHY DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND SWAMP-ROOT

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine.

It is a physician's prescription. Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Newark Advocate.

of the subject thoroughly in search of an avenue to restore the nation's coal supply.

As the situation stood early today, a deadlock existed. Attorney General Palmer of the department of justice has announced that the injunction would not be withdrawn until the strike order was revoked and with the issuance of the Congress statement labor practically has said that the strike would not be called off until the injunction was lifted.

Washington continued to cling to the hopeful outlook for an early settlement of the strike and departments today were looking forward with optimism.

Official reports from coal fields were meager but reports showed little change since Monday in the operations at the mines.

Labor leaders here who have taken a hopeful view of the strike situation after hearing of General Geiger's suggestion for a settlement were plainly disturbed by news that the department of justice would let the injunction stand. All agreed that it would keep the strike going for some time. This also was the view of observers.

In view of the intent of the Attorney General not to look for vacation for the injunction labor leaders said there was no likelihood of any important move before the injunction case came up for hearing at Indianapolis Sunday.

Confidential reports today to the department of justice said that 50 percent more men worked in the coal mines in Colorado yesterday than the day before. A number of mines were said to be running full force.

LEWIS IS SILENT.

Indianapolis, Nov. 5.—When informed of the statement of Judge Ames, assistant attorney general, John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America said today that he had no comment to make. "My statement last night covers the situation," Mr. Lewis said.

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

OHIO ELECTION HIGHLIGHTS

Ohio, largest dry state, voted to re-instate prohibition by majority estimated as high as 75,000, three times the majority by which the state voted state-wide prohibition a year ago.
Voted to uphold action of legislature in ratifying national prohibition amendment.
Voted against permitting sale of beer and wines containing up to 2.75 per cent alcohol.
Voted to make effective the Crabbe prohibition enforcement bill, passed by last legislature.
Defeated constitutional amendment proposing classification of property for taxation by majority of 100,000 or more.
L. H. Gison, wet campaign manager, concedes dry victory on all prohibition proposals except 2.75 percent beer.
J. A. White, dry manager, claims dry majority of from 50,000 to 75,000 on all prohibition proposals.
Drys gain more than 2,000 votes in Cincinnati, lost approximately 9,000 in Cleveland and gained from 8 to 25 votes to the precinct in many rural communities.
Crabbe enforcement law becomes effective as soon as vote certified by secretary of state.
Socialist majority candidates defeated everywhere. Mayor Davis, of Cleveland, and Scheiber of Toledo re-elected Mayor Korb, Democrat of Columbus defeated by J. J. Thomas, Republican.
Most local bond issues carried.
Special session of legislature in order to face taxation issues as result of defeat of classification.

WILL ORDER PLEDGE TO CHURCH FUND PAID

The will of the late Annie E. White was admitted to probate today. It was drawn July 2, 1917, and by its provisions she leaves a bequest of $5,000 to the First Baptist church of this city, which is to take the place of a liability of a pledge of that amount for herself and sister, Miss White Stevenson.
Miss White also made a bequest of $500 to Samuel McGregor, for his kind and services to herself and sister while living upon their farm, and also a bequest of $250 to Elmer Kumei for his kindly services. The personal effects are left to the sister as is the real estate. Miss White stating in the will that her sister was a joint owner of same. A money bequest of $2,500 is left to a brother, Frank White, and the estate after all debts and bequests are paid is at the death of the heirs devised to the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society and the American Baptist Home Mission Society.

Taken to Convent.
Pearl Conklin, 13, was taken to the Convent of the Good Shepherd at Columbus today by Probation Officer Mrs. Mary Miller. The young girl's mother remarried and she did not wish to live with her stepfather.

Asks for Dismissal.
Fitzgibbon, Montgomery & Black have filed a motion in the probate court to dismiss the petition of Harvey C. Crawford against Mary Clark Crawford, an action for divorce, alleging that the court has no jurisdiction because Crawford is not a resident in good faith of Licking county.

Says Wife Locked Him Out.
James Wesley Shepperd has filed a petition in the probate court against Dora Shepperd. They were married February 4, 1915, and Shepperd charges her with gross neglect and cruelty, alleging that she swore at him and called him vile names and that on April 20, that she threw his clothing from their home and locked the doors on him. He asks for a divorce and all relief to which he may be entitled.

Marriage Licenses.
Harry E. Miller, a farmer, and Miss Lena Popham, both of Washington township.
Charles Eshelman, a farmer of Chatham, and Mrs. Ines May Simcoe of Hanover.
Rev. L. C. Sparks to officiate.

Ring Up the Gods.
In China many temples are provided with a bell at the entrance, and when a worshiper enters he gives the rope a pull to ring the bell in order that the gods may be notified of his coming and be at hand to attend to his prayers.

Too bad they can't let some of that bonded whisky out on bail—Washington Post.

CAPITAL SOCIETY WOMAN JOINS THE BUSINESS WORLD

Mrs. Roscoe C. Bulmer.

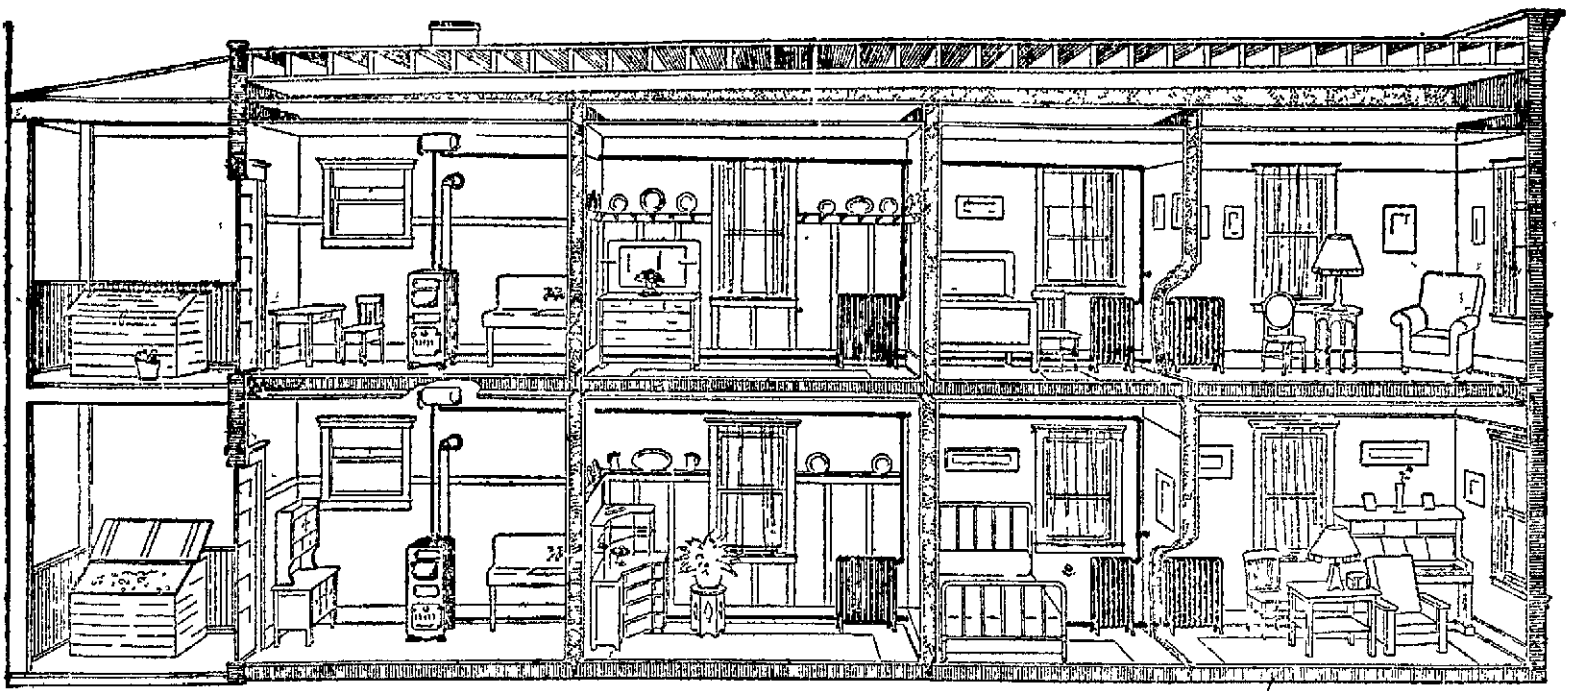

Mrs. Roscoe C. Bulmer of Washington, widow of Captain Bulmer, U. S. N., has surprised her host of friends by announcing that she has entered the business world. Her first venture is a big fur sale. Captain Bulmer died last year while on a five service abroad.

Chinese Music Unwritten.
Chinese music is not written. The words of some of the famous songs have been preserved, but the music has been handed down from father to son for generations that go far back before the day of the troubadours. When music is played it is played according to the memory of the musician and his ideas of interpretation. A musician varies the performance as his best judgement dictates, and the strings, reeds or brass may break in at almost any time.

All-on-One-Floor Heating $107

Reduces living costs for the small home!

Where two or more families occupy a building and there is no janitor service available, this arrangement of separate heating outfits (consisting of an IDEAL-Arcola Boiler with a few AMERICAN Radiators connected thereto) offers a fine solution. Each tenant easily takes care of his simple heating outfit on his own floor without going to the cellar (if there is a cellar) to attend to the fire. Each tenant controls the heat to suit his own needs. The piping is ordinarily run out of sight between walls or under floors.

New IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler

Puts IDEAL Hot Water Heating comfort at low cost in "deckers" or flats, bungalows, stores and shops, with or without cellars

Even the $15 a month tenant would be glad to pay $1.50 a month extra for this IDEAL Hot Water Heating, as it would save the tenant investing six times that amount in a short-lived stove with its one-room "spotty" heating. Does away with the annual blacking, taking down and storing of stoves. And the $1.50 a month increased rental is good interest to the building owner and secures him a better satisfied, longer-staying tenant. The IDEAL-Arcola is therefore an investment, not an expense—as it will outwear the building itself.

Investigate at once this IDEAL Heating bargain!

Each tenant controls the exact degree of warmth his family prefers or needs—makes his own indoor climate! The IDEAL-Arcola requires no cellar. Same water is circulated over and over for many years! There is no danger to children or fire risk to building, as the iron surfaces do not get red-hot like a stove, nor can the Arcola be overturned or a leg kicked out. Stops all coal-waste—thus bringing heating costs down to lowest notch.

Greatest comfort, cleanest heating, saves work and worry; protects family health, saves doctor bills and repair bills. The coal-saving soon repays original cost. Put quickly into OLD or new buildings. Phone your local dealer today.

Catalog showing open views of houses, individual flats, stores, offices, etc., with the IDEAL-Arcola Boiler in position will be mailed (free). Write today

Good evening, Mayor Atherton. Congratulations and good luck.

It's Judge Bolton, if you please, and it gives pleasure to express it that way.

The proposal to establish the double platoon system in the Newark fire department carried by a large majority.

Many, many bricks were thrown at City Solicitor Henry C. Ashcraft but he dodged all of them and just look at the result.

The story of the $5.60 collection of fines for the month of May 1919 has been laid to rest. Experience may teach the political managers that it always pays to be fair.

Mr. Kent can't attribute his defeat to unfair tactics—except the unfair tactics used by the Republican organization itself in the effort to discredit the Atherton administration.

Again has it been demonstrated clearly that it pays to be fair in politics as in everything else. The unwarranted attack upon Mayor Atherton and Solicitor Ashcraft is reflected in the majorities given both of these men.

Chiff Frye is not the only banker who is classed among the winners. There's Roy Marvin of the Licking County Bank and Trust company who got under the wire ahead of Guy Lawyer in the race for the city treasurership.

Frank A. Bolton will be Newark's first municipal judge. He enters office in January on a four year term at which time the office of justice of the peace and the mayor's court will be discontinued. The new municipal court has important jurisdiction. The office is in competent hands, in charge of an experienced well educated lawyer.

Peter W. Faust again demonstrated his popularity by being among the winners for membership in the council. Mr. Faust on the Democratic ticket, T. A. Bazler and Frank Knauber on the Republican ticket are the councilmen at large who were elected yesterday.

Henry C. Ashcraft had as his opponent in the race for City Solicitor Max B. Norpell, a clean cut, able young lawyer and world war soldier who served in Italy. Mr. Ashcraft has reason to be proud to win a race over a man of Mr. Norpell's high character and ability.

Bert O. Horton has been defeated in the race for City Auditor but it wasn't because of any lack of qualification because Mr. Horton possesses the ability needed in that office. The successful man is the popular teller at the Park National bank, who is now serving as city treasurer.

It pays to advertise. H. H. Scott better known as "Hade" and as "Scotty," popular through his connection with sports, wins the presidency of the city council by a narrow margin, defeating one of the most capable men who ever held that office—R. L. Williams the Hudson avenue druggist.

Major Montgomery was a brave soldier in the world war, he is a good lawyer, a first class citizen and has been regarded as an astute politician but surely he slipped when as head of the Republican organization he attacked ed Mayor Atherton's record of fines. However only a few of us rank 100 per cent.

THE VICE-PRESIDENCY.

The continued illness of President Wilson calls attention once more to the function of the vice-president, and the always existing chance that he may suddenly find himself the chief executive. Vice-presidents are nominated very hastily and carelessly, and without consideration of the chance that they may succeed to the presidential office.

This is not said with any preference to the present incumbent of the office. He has conducted himself very creditably, and is probably in ability to the average of the men who have held the office before him. He may do very well indeed in the lamentable contingency of the death of disability of Mr. Wilson.

But everyone must feel that the present customs relating to this office are unsound in theory and likely to result in some serious disaster. Most of the vice presidents who in the past have succeeded to the presidency, are men who could never have been elected president had they headed the ticket. A system that places in this exalted office men who could never have been elected to fill it, is fundamentally wrong.

The functions of the vice president as they now stand, give no scope for a man of force and ambition. He has practically nothing to do. If nominations to this office are to attract men who are suitable to become president, the office must be given more power and chance to accomplish things.

The office should be one of the most important and attractive in the whole government, and the ablest men in the country should be encouraged to compete for it, as they do for the speakership of the house. Much could be said in favor of giving the nomination to the man who stands second in the national convention ballots to represent. This would be sure to secure a statesmanship of high rank.

HOME BUILDING.

From all over the country there comes the complaint of lack of dwellings. The population has kept growing, but houses have not been built much through the war.

The high cost of materials and labor acts as a deterrent to building. Still there is no sign that this cost will decline much, so it is poor policy to hold off from building.

Many bright and progressive towns, realizing that they could make a big advance in population if they could have adequate housing, are taking hold of the proposition in a systematic way. At Pontiac, Mich., finding that they needed 2000 more houses, a committee of the Chamber of Commerce made a systematic canvass to find men who would agree to put up dwellings. They reported that it was surprising how easily their business men and others could be persuaded to cooperate, particularly when they were shown how they would be helped by the loaning of funds on mortgage.

As a result of the campaign, the construction of the 2000 houses is now assured. One manufacturing company announces that as a result it will put on 2000 more workers.

Similar schemes are being worked out in many places. It is a project that can be put over anywhere, both in cities and in small towns, if people take hold of it with energy and public spirit. Here in Newark a growth of population could be secured if a good number of modern and attractive dwellings could be put up. Such a matter should not be left to individual initiative. The business men should take it up as something needed for community advance. People should put their money into this kind of investment, instead of sending it away and losing much of it in distant speculative schemes.

The aviators talk much about "tail spins." Many of the after dinner orators need one back into their chairs.

The President hasn't had any "cerebral lesion," but the talkers have had a dangerous lesion of hot air.

Talking of "drastic reservations," that is the kind the kid element uses in ratifying the school rules.

BASEBALL UNDER MIDNIGHT SUN

A ball game at midnight, with the championship of the Far North to be determined, makes a big holiday of June 14, for the people of the Yukon.

The big holiday of the Midnight Sun brings thousands of people from all parts of the Yukon and many from Alaska for hundreds of miles for a big celebration," writes E. C. Steffen in the current issue of Hunter-Trapper of Columbus, O. "The main event is the baseball game followed by a dance. The game started promptly at midnight, as Alaska and Yukon are favored with continuous daylight for many weeks during the summer months, the nights being by far more beautiful than the days. It was a hard fought battle, at that game. Since I had played with Uncle Sam, and had been in professional service for years, the trappers of White Horse and Skagway asked me to play for them. We were playing against one of the United States teams from the lower coast. In the pale rays of the Midnight Sun, Uncle Sam was for once defeated. There was only one run made. We made it."

Even when a girl marries for money she should take a fellow for just what he is worth.

An honest death is better than a dishonest life.—Socrates.

The Pacifist.
 A peaceful man is Richard Penn.
 Superlatively so;
 And he apologizes when
 He gives his nose a blow.

The Couple That Jeered.
 Aunt Caline says—Yesterday I an Maggie Zeen was up in Newark on a little biring ture, which they're a-having sails up there now, an' I an Maggie was off to take advantage of 'em an' we done so. We was a-going threw the Arcade when we met up with Will B. Drunker, which he was quite drunk an' we couldn't get rid of him to save us. So at last Maggie she says, "Will, you better hurry on now or you'll sure miss your car home, she says."

Aunt Caline

An' Will kind of strutted up as well as he could an' says he, "Well I take that rite kind of you to remind me of it, Maggie," he says. "It had clean slipped my mind," he says. "Now you an' Aunt Caline start here an' wait fer me while I go an' ketch my car," says he.

It's a Problem.
 Modern interpretations of scripture are sometimes so free as to be absolutely misleading, and our observation leads us to infer that the injunction to multiply is taken by many married couples to mean divide.

Did You Know
 That "Mac" or "Mc," the Gaelic prefix occurring in Celtic names, means "son"? It is probably allied to the Gothic "magus," a son, the feminine

WILD OATS.

(Philadelphia Record)
 A clever and witty professor published a book some time ago to teach people "How to Tell the Birds from the Flowers." It is desirable to be able to do this. It is not so easy as it used to be supposed. The biologists have found a neutral zone, or Man's Land, where plant life shades into animal life so gradually that a sharp and distance line cannot be drawn between the two.

We are beginning to learn that the moral characters of the two kingdoms, the animal and the vegetable, are very similar, and quite unlike that which it has long been the fashion to impress upon human beings by examples drawn from both kingdoms.

We have lately noticed the indolence of the ant and the bee, which for untold ages have been held up before man as inspirations to tireless industry. To this there has been added the knowledge that the wild fros are far from being only dispirited member of the plant family, but, on the contrary, all plants keep very late hours, not going to sleep till after midnight and sleeping until 10 or 11 o'clock. The awake and open in the morning has given the impression that vegetation goes to bed with the chicken and rises with the lark, though we are beginning to suspect that neither of these good habits as it is credited with Human beings who have other means of dispelling the shades of night than the glow worm and the firefly have been exhorted to go to bed at dark and arise before dawn, the sun, with choice cuts of meat and sirloin steaks.

During the progress of the war Mr. Hoover's words became law. Because there did was enough food to feed our own people, the soldiers abroad and many allied camps as well, the former in an authoritative position now he might ration foodstuffs to help reduce prices.

He is not now in a commanding position, but the people have just as much reason to be thankful for his warning about hostilities. His warning should arouse them to a sense of their responsibility to the country's economic welfare as well as their own. It would be a sharp blow against high prices of necessities if the soup dinners were popularized again.

 Graveyard of Your Own.
 Every man should have a graveyard of his own. In it he should bury all his mean thoughts, his bad deeds, his animosities and evil aspirations, and bury them deep, so that there can be no resurrection. If you hear a bit of malicious gossip—bury it deep. If you have been nursing a feeling of hatred toward some person—bury it deep. And when you have finally filled your graveyard with the worst that in you— you will find the world and all that goes to make it a much better place than ever before.—Exchange.

FOUR MONTHS.

(New York Evening Post)

One of the reasons why the senate refused to include mention of the Alamo in the preamble to the treaty may have been an uneasy recollection that the Alamo created six days and rested on the seventh, whereas the senate has been debating the treaty for four months and LaFollette is still to speak on the labor clause. Is it mere physical weariness that makes the calls for "vote yes" from the senators, or is there at last a consciousness of shame at playing endless farce in the midst of a world laden with the materials of tragedy?

Nearly four dozen amendments have been solemnly led forth out of the meeting room of the foreign relations committee to be immolated on the altar of what? Of factional politics, of personal interests, of mere personal spite. Take the worst that has been said of the wicked men at Paris who wrote the treaty, and they will stand up as impressive figures by comparison with the protagonists at Washington. The selfish ambitions they defended were national ambitions, the advantages they sought were grounded in realities; in their bargaining they were at least sincere. It may have been the evil of old diplomacy, at work, but it was a diplomacy, a system, of soundship of some kind. The worst that has been said of the verbal chaos that has ruled at Washington, of the furious challenges that were meant to die as soon as they were uttered, of the trumpet calls to charge—in no particular direction?—has taken the Republican leadership four months to complete a triumphal parade back to the starting point.

DAVID LAMAR GUILTY.

(Ohio State Journal)
 The government has won its case against David Lamar, for many years a notable figure in Wall Street, who was convicted in 1917 of violation of the law and of plotting to obstruct the draft. The trial court gave him a sen-of which is "magaths." The root is probably the Sanscrit "māh," to grow. The Welsh form of "Mac" is "Map," sortened into "ap," as Ap Richard.

Hardships.
 For passing of whisky I shed not a tear.
 And my goat isn't got by the absence of beer.
 It is little to me if the country is dry—
 But I'm darned if I'll stand for de-natured Mince Pie.
 —Ted Robinson in Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The passing of gin was no hardship to us.
 At the passing of rum we did not cuss a cuss;
 And we wonder if Christmas we'll be at a loss
 For the kick, taken out of the plum puddin' sauce.
 —Judd Lewis, in Houston Post.

Champagne I bewail not, 'twas out of my class,
 And seldom I emptied a spindle-stemmed glass,
 But wit that I laughed at now moistens my eye;
 For speeches are dreary since banquets went dry.
 —Kee Maxwell, in Akron Times.

Though for two and three-fourths per cent beer I don't fall,
 Nor even, indeed, for the festive high-ball,
 Yet fishing will be not a sport but a task.
 If they forcibly take our old time-honored flask.

The American Girl.
 She's loyal to her native land,
 Her weapons are her many charms;
 She knows how to use powder, and She's waiting for a call to arms.
 —Luke McLuke.

You rashly join her company
 And find yourself a year hence,
 Paying, such is her strategy,
 For all of her accomplishments.

tence of 18 months but he appealed and the time since then has been spent in artful delays and skillful interference. Now the high court at Washington has upheld the conviction and there remains nought for the man but to bow obedience to the law he sought to make powerless.

It is well when the rich and powerful are made to yield obedience to the law, if they offend. The law is obeyed by those in humble station and the law should be equal in its application. Lamar has talented counsel and skillful assistance. The fine art of legal procedure was all employed in his case but in the end he must obey the law. The government that was strong enough to take the boys for duty in war was simply strong to mete out punishment to those who interfered, no matter what their purpose may have been.

PSYCHOLOGY AND SOUP.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer)

Herbert Hoover says that from sixteen to twenty million tons of food more than necessary for American consumption has been the country's crop yield this year. This should be encouraging to people who have found food prices many allied camps as well, the former food administrator makes it plain that decreased costs of necessities must depend on the people as well as on the supply.

Continuing high retail prices, he asserts, are due largely to the "appalling psychology of the public to buy expensive things." In effect, this means that too few follow the old fashioned custom of eating a fair portion of tripe and pig's feet compared with the choice cuts of meat and sirloin steaks.

During the progress of the war Mr. Hoover's words became law. Because there did was enough food to feed our own people, the soldiers abroad and many allied camps as well, the former in an authoritative position now he might ration foodstuffs to help reduce prices.

He is not now in a commanding position, but the people have just as much reason to be thankful for his warning about hostilities. His warning should arouse them to a sense of their responsibility to the country's economic welfare as well as their own. It would be a sharp blow against high prices of necessities if the soup dinners were popularized again.

THINK IT OVER.

(Leslie)

It is time for constructive work. We should all be on the job. This means employers and employees.

Every strike that closes a shop kills a pay-roll. Every investment of capital in a new factory, store or dwelling lengthens the pay-roll.

Every new mine, oil well or ship helps the worker as well as the enterprise. The workers and the investors go hand in hand. Disturbers who try to separate them are as contemptible as those who quarrel between man and wife or mother and child.

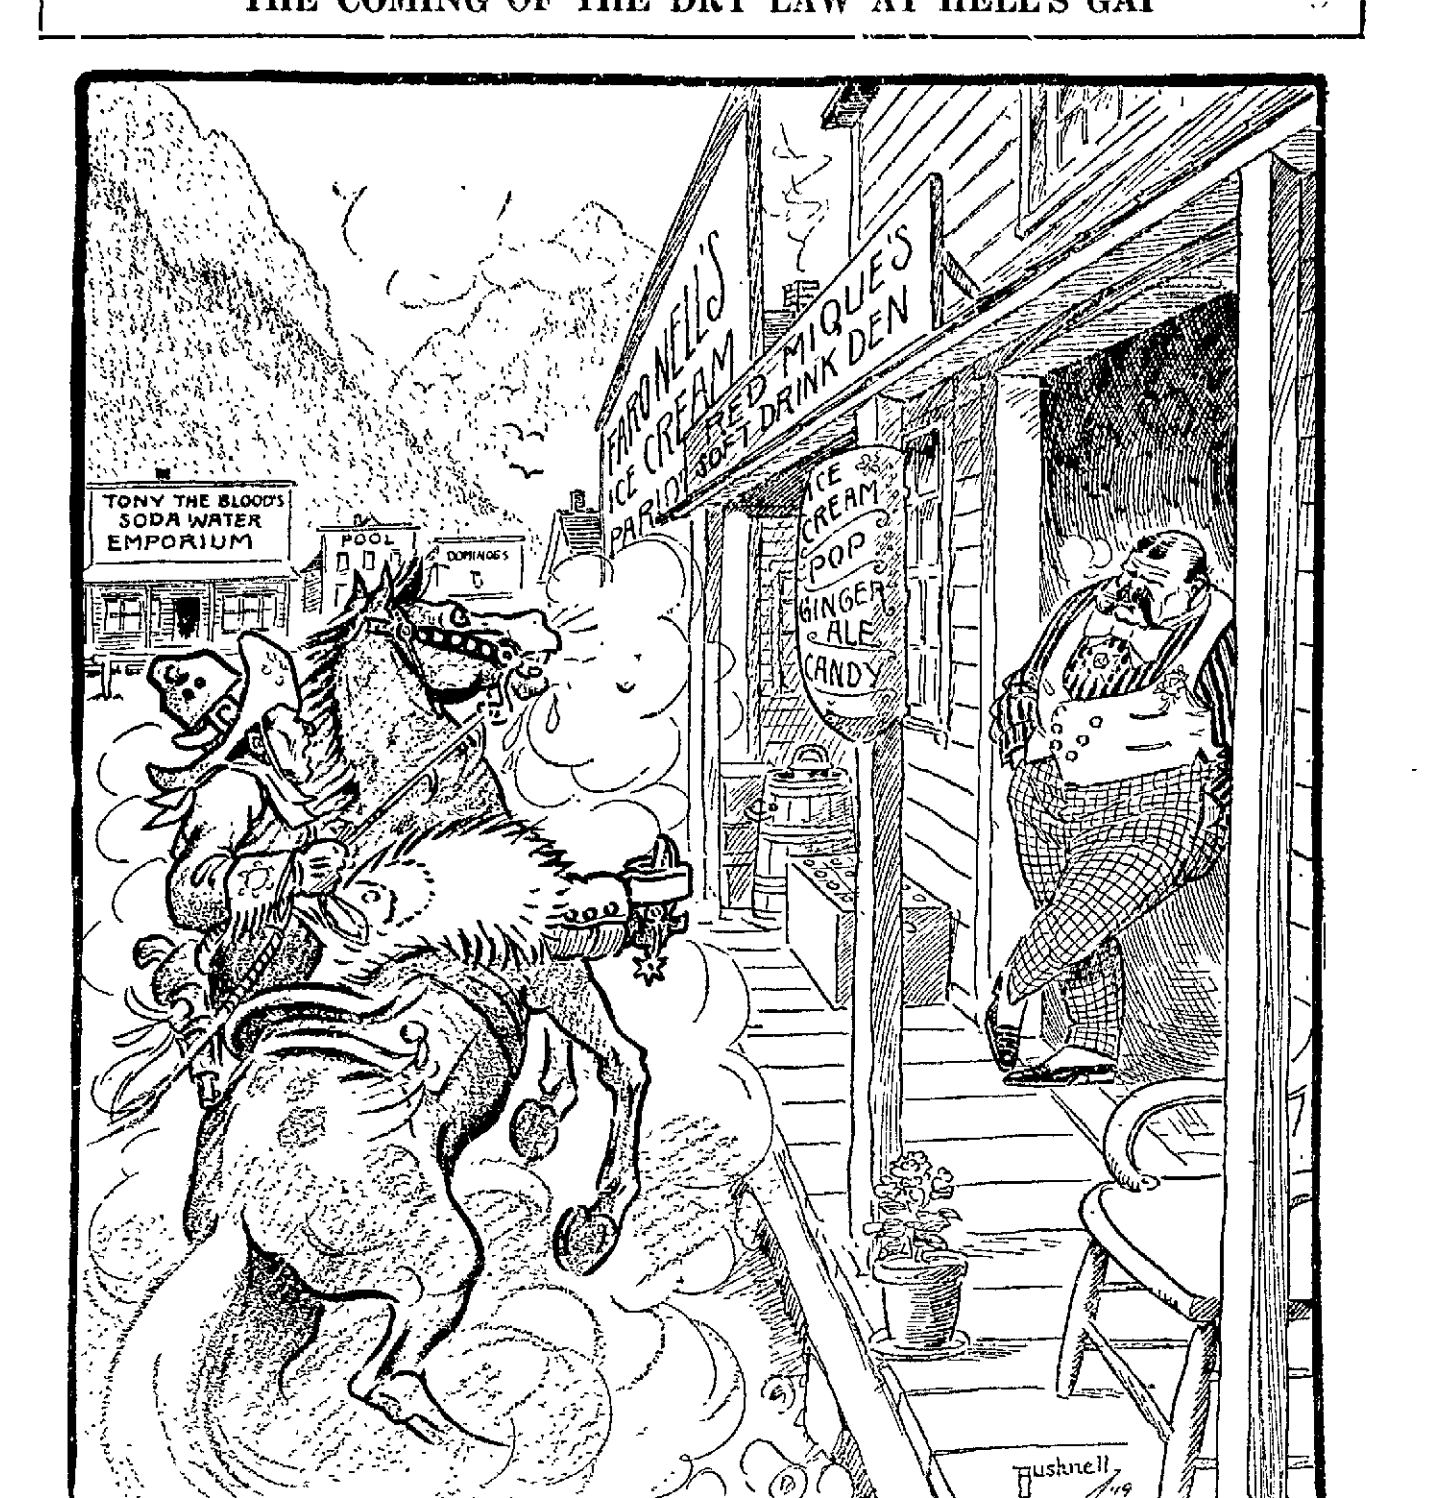

It is inspiring to read that five great companies—the American Car and Foundry, American Locomotive, Baldwin Locomotive, Standard Steel Car company and Haskell & Barker—with others, are working together to organize a new banking company to finance foreign contracts. The Old World needs the product of these factories, but has not the means to pay for them, so it is proposed through this new banking corporation, to give them the credit they must have.

It requires no argument to show that every foreign order placed in an American shop means larger pay roll and a fuller dinner pail for the American workman.

The reconstructive, upbuilding work of our great banks and corporations shames those who investigate strikes seek to demoralize our industries, or the prosperity of which the workers must depend for a livelihood.

Think it over!

Famo Is a Medicine Your Hair Needs it Daily

FAMO should be used as you use your tooth paste—every morning.
You use FAMO to kill seborrhea, just as you cleanse your teeth to ward off pyorrhea.

One is just as persistent, just as deadly in its effects, as the other—pyorrhea killing the teeth and seborrhea destroying the hair.
The action of FAMO is medicinal because it is a medicine—a medicine for the scalp and hair.

To be sure, one application of FAMO does frequently—almost always, in fact—clear the head of the deadly seborrhea germ.

So does a good medicated tooth paste cleanse the mouth.

But, skip a single day with the tooth-brush, and what happens?

Gums begin again to work on your teeth.

The same process applies to the hair.

With FAMO you cleanse your scalp of seborrhea germs.

They are gone, your head is clean, and you fancy yourself safe.

But you are not safe. The germ of seborrhea will surely return—unless you continue to use FAMO.

Once a week, or twice a week, is not enough.

Every day your head should have an application of FAMO. Every morning, as regularly and as faithfully as you brush your teeth.

You can drive the seborrhea germ out of your hair with FAMO.

You can keep it out by continuing the use of FAMO.

FAMO is sold at all toilet goods counters, in two sizes—$1 and 35 cents.

Seborrhea is the medical name for a morbidly increased flow from the sebaceous glands of the scalp.

The seborrheic eruption forms in scales or flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.

11 HENS IDLE; NOW LAY 221 EGGS A MONTH

Mrs. Young Almost Gave Up Raising Chickens. Then She Tried This Plan.

"When I accepted your offer and tried Don Sung, I had been getting 1 or 2 eggs every other day. The next month, using 50 cents worth of Don Sung, my 11 hens laid 221 eggs. I almost gave up raising chickens, but now I have decided to raise as many as I can."—Mrs. E. C. Young, Bellefonte, Pa.

Feed less expensive waste on idle hens. You can easily start your hens laying and keep them laying, even in coldest winter. To prove it, all you need do is accept our offer, as Mrs. Young did.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded. Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 284 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Tasty Candy
Antiseptic Beats
All Medicines

You can throw away most medicines when you get rid of constipation. As easy and pleasant way to do this has been discovered in Partola Mint Candies. They taste like the finest candy you ever tried and have a valuable antiseptic action on the bowels which are the breeding place for millions of germs.

Partola Candies—"The Doctor in Candy Form"—are delicious little tablets of peppermint flavor without the slightest taste of medicine. They are a mild, easy-to-eat, pleasant but thoroughly effective laxative and leave no harsh or weakening after-effects.

Partola Candies keep the bowels clear and the liver active; help purify the blood; drive away that "tired feeling"; and make you feel like a new person. They are good for young and old alike. Children ask for them and grown-ups learn what real health is through their use.

These tasty, appetizing and antiseptic mint laxative tablets should be kept in every home at all times. Try eating two tonight before going to bed, and see how much better and full of "pep" and life you will be tomorrow. At all drug stores, 25c, 50c and $1.00 boxes. Trial size, 10c.

An unusually interesting and attractive

Halloween party was held Friday evening at "The Shades," the country home of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Davis, one half mile west of Jacksontown, on the National pike.

The decorations, as arranged by Mrs.

Davis and her daughter, Williametta, were new and attractive.

The rooms were decorated with water melons and pumpkins, carved, dressed and lighted to resemble persons in various costumes, surrounded by a lavish use of beautiful flowers. The parlors were decorated profusely and artistically with colored flowers of various kinds.

The music was enjoyed by all present with Miss Hentze at the piano and Merrill Larabee with the saxophone.

The dining table was attractive in many ways. Individual candlesticks, made of parsnips, holding pink candles,

were at each plate. Two separate ears of corn and with the same colored ribbons, were drawn to determine the partners at the table.

The centerpiece of the table was a mammoth pumpkin, hollowed as a vase, and filled with large chrysanthemums.

The after-dinner speech was instructive and amusing. Supt. of Schools Lester

Black made the highest score in the

"Psychological Quiz on a Pumpkin" and Mrs. Davis on "Throwing Apples

Through a Glass." The guests were entertained with other games until a late hour.

The party was held in honor of the school board, of which Mr. Davis is a member, and the teachers of the Jack-sontown public schools.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs.

Atlee Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. W. V.

Davis, Williametta Davis, Oliver Davis,

Mr. and Mrs. John Orr, Merrill Larabee, Vera Miller, Francis Meredith,

Clara Darrah, Belle Woodruff, Ruth

Wyand, of Jacksontown. Those present from Newark were Mr. and Mrs.

Lester Black, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis B.

Bell, Miss Mary Hentze, Clarence Bee

and Harold Roley. Regrets were received from Supt. N. D. O. Wilson on account of a previous engagement.

Chrysanthemums in varied colors adorned the tables when the members of the Sylvia Bible class of the Second

Presbyterian church entertained with a dinner at the home of Mrs. G. W. Steffee, in North Cedar street.

The appointments were delightful and a course dinner was served to about forty guests. It is the custom of the class to have an annual picnic during the summer months, but it was postponed

this year and the dinner was given last evening. The class also entertained five guests.

The Progressive club will entertain with a winter picnic at the home of

Mrs. Mary Woodbridge, on Wednesday afternoon.

When the members of the G. A. B. club were entertained by Mrs. Dwight

Murphy at the Callahan home in South

Fifth street Tuesday evening, announcement was made of the approaching marriage of Miss Agnes Murphy and Mr.

Alfred Oberfield. The date was announced for Nov. 25, and the ceremony will be solemnized at St. Francis de

Sales church.

The announcement was made at dinner

by clever little verses concealed under a rose on the place cards. The table was centered with a heart-shaped cake of round of similar.

Miss Murphy is the daughter of Mrs.

Margaret M. Murphy, of 230 South Sixth street. She is head of the hosiery department at the J. J. Carroll store. Mr.

Oberfield's home is in South Sixth avenue.

E. C. Drury, Ontario's new premier-elect, is already experiencing opposition because of some of his cabinet selections. Drury was the unanimous choice of the United Farmers of Ontario and was supported by the labor group in the legislature. He is a family man, having a wife and five children, the youngest of whom is two and one-half years old.

street and he was corporal with Battery B 324th H. P. A. with the A. E. F.

The guests of the club were Miss Hilda Oberfield and Miss Frances Oberfield.

The Whatsoever Circle of The King's Daughters will meet at the home of Mrs. Cary Ferguson, in 384 West Church street, on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Black entertained a few guests on Tuesday evening at their Hudson avenue home for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Carroll.

Chicago Grain Review.
Chicago, Nov. 5.—Fresh strength developed in the corn market today owing to higher quotations on hogs and to forecasts to unsettled weather. Opening prices which ranged from 1-3 cents off to 3-4 cents advance, with December 131 1-4 to 136 3-4 and May 130 3-4 to 131, were followed by moderate general gains before a reaction set in. The market was dull and relatively weak. After opening 1-8 cents to 1-4 and 3-8 cents higher, including December at 72 7-8 to 73, the market underwent a material sag.
Provisions sympathized with upturns in the value of hogs and corn. Aggressive support, however, was lacking.

Wall Street.
New York, Nov. 5.—Speculative interest registered their approval of a "bull" rally only a violent bidding for prices at the opening of today's session. Our Boys and Girls

A practical way to encourage a child in composition is to have them write frequent "thank you" notes. Talk to him beforehand about what he wishes to say to this or that person. Childish phraseology is an elusive thing, more often caught on the lips than in writing, and talking a note over in advance makes the actual writing of it an easy matter.
The possession of a little writing desk with attractive furnishings and a low, comfortable chair, is a healthy aid to childish letter writing and will work wonders toward interesting the average child.
A box of miniature correspondence cards, decorated with nursery designs, is a great help for the child who is discouraged even at the sight of a sheet of writing paper. It takes such a few words to appear to advantage on such a card that several notes can be disposed of without unduly tiring the youthful correspondent.
In pointing a moral to her children a mother should adorn her tale with home made jingles which the children will soon commit to memory and apply. For instance, "Because the teeth are out of sight, forget them not but keep them bright." And again she will remind them to clean their teeth by repeating, "Be sure and keep your teeth snow white or food will never taste just right."
Sometimes, too, she will instruct them how to clean their teeth by reciting the jingle, "To cleanse your teeth brush up and down, once said a dentist of renown."
To impress these truths upon the minds of her children, she will use good example, and when particles of food become wedged between the teeth, she will show them how to use dental floss and she will see that the child takes of the children contain some of this useful article. It is quite as important as wash cloths and towels.

Milady's Boudoir
Beauty in Sleep.
If a woman is engaged in business she will find that her tired nerves will become much rested if she can snatch five minutes of sleep during her lunch hour. Of course it is not always possible to lie down and relax, but she can always find a chair in an out of the way corner, to sit in where she can relax every muscle and forget that there is such a thing in the world as responsibility.
The woman who is lovely into old age is the one who never allowed anything to interfere with her resting hours. No matter how filled the day with social engagements and household work, she always managed to take an hour or two to rest her nerves during the day. Two nights a week she made it a practice to go to bed at nine thirty.
Hers was a constitution that required large amount of sleep and there were many other women like her. Without a certain amount of attention to conserving the energy, the nerves will become shattered, the skin withered and unattractive and the hair thin or prematurely gray. Lack of sleep will cause more harm to a woman's beauty than any other one thing.
If you come home from business tired, or have had a hard day at home, try taking a salt bath or a tepid bath just before retiring. No matter if you are tempted to go out again in the evening, deny yourself this pleasure for the sake of your physical well being and good looks, and go to bed early.

The Beautiful Hand.
The housewife, who wishes to keep her hands looking well, and to avoid getting callouses which come from sweeping and other hard household work, should grease the hands with oil and powder them with talcum powder before putting on some working gloves. Hands that object to soap, and very frequently oils in the pure state, take kindly to a whitening powder. This is made as follows:
Mix eight ounces of powdered almonds with two ounces of powdered orange root, and half a dram of oil of cloves with one dram of oil of lavender. Stir this together until thoroughly mixed and then add four ounces of powdered cuttle fish bone and the same of powdered castile soap. Use this just as you would soap.
It is bad for the beauty of the hands to wear soiled kid gloves or to expose the hands to the outside air immediately after a warm water bath. It is bad for the hands, also, to pick up any soiled things without wearing gloves. If the hands are sensitive to too much washing, they may be cleansed during the day by rubbing with oil and then thoroughly wiped with a coarse towel.
The nails should be carefully manicured at least once a week. To do this the fingers should be held in warm soapy water, to which has been added 10 drops of tincture of benzoin. The nails must be filed a little longer than the tips of the fingers and in an oval curve. The skin at the base of the nails should be pushed back, either with a blunt orange stick or the fleshy part of the thumb of the other hand.
A slight taster may be given the nails with emery powder and they should be polished with a charmois polish. Great care must be taken not to break the skin around the nails, as this is very delicate and might result in hang nails.

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM
Continuous Pictures.
The showings today at the Auditorium are continuous and "The House of Bondage" also "Doug" Fairbanks are the attractions that are sure to pack this theater to the doors.
"The House of Bondage" with Lottie Pickford as the star, was written by Reginald Wright Kaufman and is said to be a wonderful photoplay. Manager Fenberg requests his patrons to try and get to the theater early, for he wants all to see the double bill if possible, therefore the pictures will be shown today right through the supper hour and run this evening until all have seen both the features.

Arizona.
Marjorie Daw and Kathleen Kirkham have become inseparably identified with Douglas Fairbanks' pictures, because of their having played in all of his current productions.
They play the important female roles in his elaborate screen production of ily log as one of the tricks of fate and kiss and make up.

Does she?
And if she does, is she a regular wife? Pr—?
"She Walked in Her Sleep" is the name of this laugh-provoking play which comes to the Auditorium theater next Tuesday night.
Arthur Aylesworth and Eva Williams are being starred in this laughing vehicle, which is teaming over with mystery, fun and merriment.

Branding Broadway.
William S. Hart picture (which arrived O. K. yesterday) in which Hart is seen in "Branding Broadway"—Gladys Brockwell is screened in her latest William Fox feature "Chasing Rainbows" and as Sadie, she wins them all.
Sadie—is a waitress, and she doesn't know much about grammar, but she has a heart as big as the chain of railroad restaurants for which she works. That is why everyone likes Sadie.
Perhaps also that is why she has given her love not too wisely to a drummer named Lacy, and has spent many happy hours planning their home-to-be.
Sadie's faith in mankind takes a terrible drop when she learns that Lacy is married and has a little boy. To get away from her sorrow she has herself transferred to Bagdad, in Death Valley, at home. His is a rare genius—the sort one marvels at and finds difficult to define.
Dainty Seena Owen, who appears as leading woman for William S. Hart in "Branding Broadway," is one of the most pleasing of the younger actresses, with beauty, talent and personality to spare. She has had a wide screen experience, has appeared in Paramount pictures as well as with other productions, and is always to be relied upon for a satisfactory performance of a given role. As the little waitress in "Branding Broadway," she is said to give one of her best portrayals, ingenious, demure and wholly charming.

The Crimson Gardenia.
Rex Beach's latest contribution to screen sensations is "The Crimson Gardenia," newest of his popular novels to be pictured for Goldwyn. It comes to the Alhambra theater beginning Friday.
The striking title is derived in a manner equally striking. A single gardenia worn on the black domino of a participant in the New Orleans Mardi Gras becomes crimsoned with the man's blood when he is stabbed.
Back of this action are the machinations of a band of counterfeiters. They believe they have been betrayed and murder their former confederate, the wearer of the gardenia. This example of lawlessness brings about strange complications in the lives of many people. Chief of these are Roland Van Dam, a sightseer mingling with the carnival crowds, and Madelon Dorette a girl searching for her cousin—the very man who was murdered.

The Four Flushers.
The popular Hilde Hamilton, who will be seen in his latest comedy-drama success, a Metro picture called "The Four Flushers," at the Alhambra theater, on Sunday next, is one of the few great American actors who has had the unusual distinction of being commanded by the British King, while he was in London starring in that famous success "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford," to give a royal command performance at Windsor Castle.
This is an honor of which few American stars can boast, and is a mark of the highest achievement in the English theater. It is no wonder that an actor of Mr. Hamilton's calibre should rise to the heights he has attained on the screen, and it is said that in "The Four Flushers," which is his latest big Metro success, he portrays a role very similar to that of the famous financier of the stage in which he created a sensation internationally.

THE GRAND.
Large crowds visited the Grand theater again yesterday afternoon and evening to see Douglas Fairbanks in "His Majesty The American." The onlooker fairly quakes with emotion when Doug leaps from the castle window.

Arizona.
"Arizona" by Augustus Thomas, will be shown at the Auditorium today.
Marjorie Daw plays "Donita" and Miss Kirkham is seen as "Estrella." Both these parts have been played by famous actresses on the stage and Miss Daw and Kirkham feel highly complimented at being selected to play these roles respectively in the screen production. Mr. Fairbanks plays "Lieut. Denton," a part admirably suited to his dashing personality. Theodore Roberts plays "Gandy," Frederick Burton, "Colonel Bonham," Frank Campanau "Kellar" and Raymond Hatton "Tony." This feature is seen together with "The House of Bondage."

She Walked in Her Sleep.
A "Silk Nightie" and a pretty girl sometimes cause trouble, especially if the girl is a somnambulist. Well, here is a girl, attired in bedroom apparel, who enters the apartment of a young married man, who has recently quarreled with his wife—and the way that she carries on is something scandalous. Picture yourself a husband, you have quarreled with your sweet young wife and "wifie" has returned to the parental roof and mother to talk things over. After talking with mother, she decides to return home to see whether the effect of their estrangement has caused hubby to celebrate or commit suicide. She enters the apartment and finds a beautiful young girl in a silk nightie, making free with her spouse. You try to explain, but—was man over him who could explain a being during the wee small hours of the morning is not the result of an express invitation on your part, don't you think that "wifie" should forget the whole thing? Enter it in the fun-

Auditorium Notes.
Saturday: the Auditorium will offer clever Fred Bennett in the Paramount "Fuss and Feathers." This is one of Miss Bennett's best photoplays and is shown together with the Pathe News and seen only Saturday at that theater.
Manager Fenberg received a wire yesterday from a very good friend of his, Earle Transue, a tenor of note, who is enroute to New York, where he has accepted a position with The Metropolitan Opera Co., stating he was stopping off to pay Fenberg a visit. Fenberg wired him, that he was to sing at the Auditorium Saturday and Sunday and would not take no for an answer.

INCOME TAX TO BE NEXT ISSUE

Defeat of Classification At Polls Tuesday Means
That Legislature Must
Act of Increase State Revenue.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—Defeat of the classification tax proposal which is carried by its supporters by more than 100,000 majority at yesterday's election, puts the state legislature up against the proposition of revising the state's taxation laws under the present system of taxation so that many hundreds of thousands of dollars extra revenue will be brought into the state treasury to offset the loss of liquor revenues and the general increase in cost of government. The legislature will reconvene in order to work out the new system of taxation.

Defeat of the classification proposal makes it almost certain, it is believed, that one of the first taxation measures to be recommended by the joint legislative committee on taxation will be on graduated income tax, modeled after that of the federal income tax.

Some form of graduated automobile tax that will greatly increase the revenue from licensing motor vehicles also probably will be recommended. To form such a taxation law under the present system of taxation proved to be a difficult task last winter when the legislature was in session. Present constitutions make it almost impossible to enact such a measure, the committee's experts declared then.

Had the classification amendment been adopted, it is said that such a law could have been worked out without any difficulty.

It is expected that the joint legislative taxation committee will begin at once the task of drafting new taxation laws in order that they will be ready for consideration by the legislature as soon as it reconvenes.

The legislature, it is said, may also consider the advisability of enacting laws to limit debts which municipalities and other taxing districts may incur through the issuance of bonds or otherwise.

AT THE HARTMAN.
Patricia Collins and her admirable company which appeared at the Auditorium last Saturday are delighting audiences at the Hartman theater in Columbus this week.

Coming to the Hartman for a three-day engagement beginning Thursday night, Nov. 6th, "She Walked in Her Sleep," by Mark Swann, author of "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath" and other recent successes. It is described as a "zooom dispeller" and the advance agent says that it starts fast, glides along swiftly and never knows a dull moment. Arthur Aylesworth is the principal funmaker, assisted by Eva Williams. Pretty Rose Williams, Ruth Hammond, the young person who "Walked in Her Sleep," and who is blest with a figure of delightful proportions and baby doll face; Leah Winslow, Walter Walker and others.

"Chu Chin Chew" the biggest spectacle play ever staged, comes to the Hartman for a week's stand, Monday night, Nov. 10. It is a vivid picture story of ancient England, written by Oscar Ascho, with music by Frederick Norton and was staged in America by F. Lyall Swete. Marjorie Woods heads the large cast and there is a ballet of sixty.

DISAPPEARANCE OF SCHOL PRINCIPAL REMAINS MYSTERY

J. Howard McIntyre.

The fate of J. Howard McIntyre, school principal of Conneaut, Ohio, who mysteriously disappeared at 9 p. m. Halloween, continues to baffles the searchers. It was thought at first that McIntyre was the victim of a Halloween prank, but this belief was dismissed when his disappearance extended into days. He was seen in a short distance from his home. His overalls and necktie were found near that spot later. He is married and has three children.

ROTARIANS ELECT THREE NEW MEMBERS

Three new members were received into membership in the Rotary club at the noon meeting on Tuesday at the Masonic Temple. They were C. Harington, E. L. W. McGilroy and Leslie Beggs. The address of welcome on behalf of the club was made by Rotarian Frank L. Beggs.

The president of the club read a letter from Rotarian Frank L. Johnson, former secretary of the Newark Y. M. C. A., now on foreign service. Johnson's letter gave many intimate impressions of Constantinople from which city he dated his letter.

The remainder of the luncheon hour was given over to a contest in which the Rotarians tried their luck in forecasting the outcome of the city election. The results will be announced at the next meeting and prizes awarded to those whose predictions come closest to the actual results.

The club is making plans to entertain John R. Bentley, governor of Ohio Rotary clubs at an early meeting.

DELIGHTED WITH WHAT DRECO DID

Suffered for Years With Stomach Trouble, Nervousness, Pains in Back and Limbs, Dizziness and Constipation. All Gone Now.

"I have just finished taking a bottle of Dreco, and it has made me feel so much better and stronger that I can do all my own housework," said Mrs. Ora Toney, 123 Buckingham St., Newark, O. "Before I began taking Dreco," she continued, "I was in a terribly rundown condition; couldn't eat anything hardly, and didn't sleep much. At that time I started several years ago, and although I tried many different things, nothing prescribed for me seemed to do me any good, and I was almost a physical wreck."

"After eating, I would feel all bloated with sour gas, and my heart would beat so fast sometimes, I would think it was going to jump out of my body. This made me very nervous, and I was easy to get excited. I felt so badly that I couldn't take any interest in things. Nearly every day I would read in the papers about what Dreco had done for others, and many cases just fitted my symptoms exactly, so I talked the matter over with my husband, and we decided to give Dreco a trial. After a few days it began to brace me up, and I knew I had at last found the right thing my system needed."

"I am now so much better that I can eat most anything I want, and as much as I want, and do not feel any bad effects at all. My husband says I sleep like a log, and he can hardly wake me in the morning. I never have a headache now and feel strong and well. I am delighted with what Dreco did for me."

When the liver, kidneys or bowels become inactive, the system fails to throw off the poisons, and slowly, day by day, we are weakening our bodies till a breakdown comes. Sometimes it takes the form of the above case; Dreco causes the organs to carry off these toxins and waste matter, and keep the system free of these poisons. All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in this city by Evans' Cut Rate Drug Store.

STUART'S STORE POPULAR WITH COLLEGE STUDENTS

George Stuart succeeded Mills King at the south-side jewelry store, having come to Granville from Marysville, where he had been engaged in a prosperous business with a successful jeweler of that place. His work as optician has been well commended, while his side line of college supplies has given him a vogue with the young people. He is still among the "younger set" in the business of the old town but he is already recognized as a good citizen who is interested in promoting the best interests of the town of his adoption. His new home in Center-ville street (the Newark road) is nearing completion and is one of the architectural ornaments of that rapidly growing suburb of Granville. Stuart was formerly Miss Hazel Perfect, of Marysville.

WAR DELAYED STUDIES WILL FINISH IN JUNE

Walter A. Hilscher has been in Granville several years, having graduated from Doane academy. He is a member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet, for two years business manager of the college paper, subscription manager two years, assistant in physics three years. By reason of his army service he will not receive his degree from Denison until next June, when he expects to enter electrical engineering. His engagement to Miss Margaret Colwell, daughter of the late Dr. R. S. Colwell and Mrs. Colwell, was announced some time ago.

Hilscher is president of Sigma Chi fraternity, business manager of the Denisonian, chief electrician for the automatic telephone, assistant in physics in Denison university. He was in the army service nine months in Indiana, Virginia and Camp Taylor.

The women of the Methodist church were eminently successful at their annual chicken pie supper given last evening in their social rooms for the convenience of voters and of the Granville public.

QUERRIES AND QUESTIONS.

What has become of the Greater Granville club and all its places for civic betterment? Are the men planning a "surprise" to spring on the public which shall outdo the work of the women's federation? Whose business is it to guarantee the safety of the bridge over the Raccoon on the Columbus road, and who should be held responsible in case of accident to travelers on the highway at this point?

Is the law requiring drivers of trucks or wagons to display a red banner at the end of any projection beyond the bed of the vehicle a Federal or merely a state law? And is there such a law in Ohio?

When may Granville expect the privilege of electric lighting in the homes as well as new lights on the streets?

Query—Is there a village ordinance prohibiting the running of motorcycles through the streets with wide open cut-outs? If so why is it not enforced?

ACTIVE IN CONSERVING HEALTH IN COUNTY PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE IS GRANT HOSP. GRAD.

Mrs. Frank A. Ray is perfectly equipped, both by nature and by training, for the responsible positions she fills in conserving public health, not only in this community, but throughout Licking county and even in surrounding counties.

Her classes in nursing are firmly established in the minds of the people and will be continued this winter under her observation, with the assistance of Miss Alice Wilkinson, the Red Cross public health nurse. Mrs. Ray conducted classes last year in Columbus, Newark, Granville and Alexandria. She has belonged heart and soul in Granville ever since her first visit here, 28 years ago, in her capacity of nurse, assistant superintendent of St. Luke's hospital, Chicago. It was in Granville that she met her future husband and it was to Granville that she returned after their purchase of a farm on the Newark road, which she christened "Holmdale," and has dedicated to the uses of a large hospital. Mr. Ray is head of the department of mining engineering in O. S. U., her oldest daughter, Miss Helen Ray, is embarked on her second year's training in St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, having graduated from Denison in 1917, and her younger daughter, Miss Frances, is vice president of the Freshman class. Mrs. Ray is chairman of the Granville unit of the Red Cross, a member of the Licking County General District Board of Health, a member of the executive board of the Licking County Chapter Red Cross, chairman of Nursing Activities in Licking county.

JUNIOR RED CROSS PLANS PLAY GROUND

The Junior Red Cross, of Granville, has as its leader Miss Elna Ackley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ackley, of East College street, whose training and experience as a teacher in the public schools admirably fits her for this responsible position. Other members of the executive committee are Mrs. M. M. Shoemaker, Mrs. Fred Duxton, Claire Coach, Winifred Green. Membership in the Junior Red Cross is 25 cents, 60 per cent is to be devoted to child welfare work in devastated Europe, 40 per cent is to be used toward equipping a play ground in Granville. Every boy and girl in Granville is urged to join. The badge is the same as the Senior Red Cross.

that work when called to service. She was in service one year in the Army Nurse Corps when she was released by the signing of the armistice. She was assigned by the American Red Cross to duty in Granville township as Red Cross public health nurse where her work has already begun to tell, especially in the public schools.

YES, THE MAYOR DOES MANAGE TO KEEP BUSY

Although claiming Pataskala as his birthplace, Mayor C. D. Coons today is ranked as Granville's leading citizen, not only by virtue of his office, but for the numerous activities which stamp him as a man of action and of unusual administrative ability. He came to Granville as principal of the high school and after three years as superintendent of the public schools, he became successively instructor in mathematics and physics, assistant professor of physics in Denison university, he served a year as treasurer of the institution, was a graduate manager of Denison athletics for five years, is now chairman of the Denison university athletic board of control and a member of the executive committee of the National Intercollegiate Athletic association. He served during the period of the war as chairman of county draft board and as chairman of the township war work committee.

Along academic lines he has been no less active, being a member of the Ohio Academy of Science, Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and a member of the American Physical society. Since June he has been business manager of Denison university. His fraternal affiliations are with Center Star lodge F. & A. M. and with Lambda Deuteron Chapter Phi Gamma Delta. On his graduation from Denison in 1909 he received the degrees of B. S. and M. S., afterward taking two years of graduate work in the department of physics in the University of Chicago. He is recognized as an eloquent orator on occasion, though he never speaks, as he never shirks, the occasion for such service as he can give. He was formerly Miss Glendia Watt, a student in Denison.

The War Mothers of Granville, a large and flourishing organization, have voted to give their soldier sons a Thanksgiving dinner worthy the brave boys who obeyed their country's call.

MAYOR COONS IS RE-ELECTED

Granville's Chief Executive Easy Winner Over Chas.
Robinson — Shiply Re-elected Marshal.

Granville, Nov. 5.—Mayor C. D. Coons was re-elected chief executive of the village at the polls Tuesday, being twice winner over his Republican opponent, Charles Robinson, J. C. Shipley, the village marshal, who has gained some reputation for efficiency, also was re-elected. Other officials elected were: Council: H. D. Ashbrook, L. A. Austin, Harry Burkham, John D. Evans, Ira Perry, C. A. Stanforth; clerk, Roe Morrow; treasurer, L. E. Davis; board of public affairs, Burton Case, T. S. Johnson, H. W. Denning; assessor, A. E. Norris; township trustees, Will Stark, John Frouty, E. E. Jones; township clerk, W. E. Clemens; township treasurer, C. B. Slack; constable, J. C. Shipley; township ditch supervisor, Bruce Williams; board of education, Dr. C. J. Loveless and Dr. J. W. Rohrer.

The first day's membership drive for the Red Cross in Granville was held Tuesday with temporary headquarters neatly fitted up in the room adjoining the Granville Bank. Miss Grace Owen of North street and Miss Elizabeth Brown of the Columbus road—in uniform as shown in the artistic poster—had charge during the day. Tickets of membership were given all who called with their "dollars," and a visit to this immaculate symbol of the greatest of all organizations will well repay any one, even at the cost of a dollar.

Work on the new athletic field of Denison university is progressing as rapidly as the weather permits, construction on the concrete grand stand being about one-fifth completed. It is hoped that with favorable weather conditions it may be in shape for football yet this fall. Excavation also is going forward on the baseball field, making it possible to use next spring.

The board of trustees of Denison university will hold an extra session this fall and the members are expected to visit Granville on November 18 and 19 to discuss a plan of expansion.

Many Granville people, as well as many students, went to Dayton last Saturday for the football game, where, despite rain, mud, and an unexpected defeat, the time was passed most enjoyably. At the Gibson Hotel were Prof. and Mrs. C. D. Coons, Prof. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson, Prof. and Mrs. Walter Livingston, and Prof. and Mrs. W. C. Ebaugh. The Kappa Phi sorority contingent was entertained with a luncheon at the Wagon Wheel under the direction of Miss Elsie Barker of Dayton, and the Betas were royally treated at a house party given by Col. and Mrs. B. A. Deeds at their country home. Other coteries were equally well cared for.

A letter just received from Miss Susan Maxwell Moore, dean of women in the University of West Virginia at Morgantown, who formerly was head of the piano department in Denison Conservatory, speaks of the beautiful new dormitory for women just opened on the university campus. She spoke with sincerity of her abiding love for Granville and for Denison. Miss Moore was one of the most popular teachers on the Denison faculty during the ten years of her incumbency. Prof. C. Edmund Neil, formerly at the head of the department of public speaking in Denison, and who accepted a position in the University of West Virginia, has left Morgantown and is located in Boston as professor of oratory in the Theological school of that city.

Mrs. H. J. Jones opened her home today to the members of the Winter Picnic club, at the semi-monthly social gathering. The club numbers twenty five and only its out of town guests are entertained at these functions. The Fortnightly club met last evening at the home of Mrs. F. F. Robinson at College and Granger streets, with a good attendance. The program consisted of a paper on "Characteristics of the Turk" by Mrs. Forbes Wiley, and one on "Women as Nurses" by Mrs. N. E. Overturn. Reports of the Women's federation convention held at Cleveland were given by Mrs. Herriek of the Travelers' and Mrs. Hines of the Fortnightly club adding their charm to the notable program were two songs by Mrs. E. F. Johnson with piano accompaniment by Mrs. C. D. Coons.

Miss Helen Ackley, who is confined to her home in East College street with a broken ankle, is resting nicely and her condition is regarded as most favorable to speedy recovery. Misses Mayme and Marjua Geach are settled in their new home in North Mulberry street, one door north of the Chi Delta house.

"Pines Manor" on Prospect Hill, the home of Prof. and Mrs. W. C. Ebaugh, was gay in its decorations of autumn leaves and flowers with symbolic Jack o'lanterns, was the scene of a beautiful appointed Mother Goose carnival, Monday evening when the Mothers' club met for a purely social time. Those who masked were Mrs. Eliza as "Mother Goose," Mrs. C. D. Coons as "Old King Cole," Mrs. H. D. Ashbrook, "Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe," Mrs. Tom Phillips, Mrs. Archie Hankinson and Mrs. Lusk, "Sing a Song of Sixpence," Mrs. Harry Pico, "Hickory Dickory Dock," Mrs. Detweiler, "Knave of Hearts," Mrs. T. A. Lewis, "Queen of Hearts," Mrs. Shipardson, "Bo Peep," Mrs. Ferguson, "Old Witch Who Swept the Sky," Mrs. Hendell, "Polly Put the Kettle On," Mrs. Graves, "Mary, Mary," Mrs. Hoad and Mrs. Yingling, "Jack and Jill," Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Wiley, "Curly Locks," Mrs. Messick, "Old Peddler," Mrs. Shoemaker, "Old Woman in the Shoe," Pettigrew, Mrs. William Thomas, "Pretty Milkmaid," Mrs. Williams, "Miss Muffet," Mrs. E. E. Wright, "Old Woman Who Went a Shopping," Mrs. Hunter, "Bye Baby Bunting," Mrs. Carl Wyant, "Little Jack Horner," Mrs. McLaughlin, "Mary Had a Little Lamb," Mrs. Rupp, "Tommy Tucker," Mrs. Ed Evans, "Hippity Hop," Mrs. Lloyd, "Peter, Peter," Mrs. Albert Hankinson, "Pat-a-cake," Mrs. Conard, and Mrs. Fred Welsh, "Rain, Rain," Mrs. A. D. Davidson, "Simple Simon."

THE SEASON'S NEWEST MUSIC

GREAT DUET IS SUNG BY CARUSO AND DE LUCA

A wealth of artistry is laid on the altars of music this month to gratify the desires of music-lovers everywhere

ONIZETTI'S "L'Elisir d'Amore," though an opera now seldom staged, contains some superb music, which unfortunately will never quite be lost to the world as long as there is a Caruso to interpret its charms. This month the thrilling duet "Venti Santi" is presented by Caruso and De Luca on a new Victor record. It is the scene where Nemo, the youth seeking a love potion that shall win him Diana, a wealthy young woman, has paid his all for the magic bottle to make sure of the effect, but alas! for money. His rival, a young sergeant, appears, and in this duet suggests that he enlist and thus be richer by the fee of twenty crowns. The interpretation by these artists—the foremost tenor and baritone of the times—is remarkable indeed.

Another treat is in store also for music-lovers in Jascha Heifetz's interpretation of "Guitare" on a Victor record just issued. It is as though one is off on a journey into a land of clear dream and living fantasy, under the guidance of an enchanter whose every step causes the springs to flow where he has trod, whose every passing touch makes the leaves to glitter as with silver dew! Every Heifetz interpretation is like a character from some great novelist or some great dramatist, absolutely itself differing from all others. Here is another record with the master-touch, and words cannot approach its wonder.

The Sterling Trio presents this month on a Victor record a wistful little Southern song, "Carolina Sunshine." On the reverse, Charles Hart and Elliott Shaw sing "Golden Gate," another song of "one's own country," this time of the far west. John Steel sings on a Victor record just issued a young man's tribute to his mother, "The Hard That Rocked My Cradle Rules My Heart." It will do your own heart good. When you turn the record over you may expect to hear from the title "My Baby's Arms," a mother's tribute to her little one. Instead, it is a young man that sings again, and the "baby" is a full-grown, sweet, wholesome and adorable young blossom. The song was one of the successes of the Ziegfeld Follies of 1919. It is given in John Steel's particular style, with all the enchantment of youth in it.

Homer charms hearers with an aria from the "Messiah"

With something more than artistry Louise Homer sings this greatest, perhaps, of all arias on a new Victor record. Hearing her superb voice so laden with feeling it is easy to believe that for the time the singer is not giving forth the words of her own lips or even the faith of her own soul, but that she is uttering the Divine and Eternal promise as an instrument of the Divine Will. The number is sung in a fashion beyond ordinary praise, the voice surrounded by masses of sustaining harmony, passing thrillingly from register to register as the words and their meaning unfold.

Similar because of its sacredness, but contrasting in its simplicity Fritz Kreisler has issued a new Victor record, a melody for an interpretation with his violin on a Victor record just issued. It is securely left to great artist to show us that melody which lies the simple and sincere. The melody is only too prone to take for granted. Kreisler has made of the simple and sincere measures of this "negro spiritual" a memorable record.

A set of charming numbers, adapted primarily for educational purposes in the school or home, have been arranged on Victor records. One is "An Irish Folk Song," interpreted by Laura Littlefield. On the reverse of the record she also presents "Ah, Love, But a Day" and "The Year's at the Spring."

For pure patriotism William Sterling Battis gives a reading of "The American Flag" on another record, the reverse of which contains "The Name of Old Glory" by the same artist.

The Victor Military Band makes its educational contribution in selections from "American Country Dances," the first of which is "The Circle No. 2." On the reverse of the same record appears "Portland Fancy," No. 1, "Texarkana," No. 2, "Young America."

A couple of sentimental songs on one Victor record enliven the month's repertoire of musical offerings. "When I'm Gone You'll Soon Forget" is presented by the Porters Quartet. On the reverse you'll find "Weeping Willow Lane" sung by Henry Burr and Frank Croxon.

McCormack sings a delightful ballad

"Roses of Picardy," which John McCormack interprets on a new Victor record is a song taken almost at random from the many beautiful songs the new day has given to the world and is translated into a thing of more excited beauty by the voice of John McCormack—the artist who can find beauty and redisclose it in everything he touches.

The sweetest rose of all the millions that bloom in Picardy is the gull-rose to whom the song is addressed. Advancing the thought several years from the sentiment above expressed, we are in a mood to listen to Schumann Heink sing with tender melody voice a "Cradle Song," as she does on a Victor record now appearing. Here is a song which has captured the very spirit of motherhood—gentle, slow, grave, absorbed, its every bar is Schumann. Heink sings it, in strict with the feeling of rest and sleep and security that passes by what enchantment, from the soul of the mother into the untroubled soul of the child. It is sung to the full orchestra with the silvery vibrations of tiny bells, the majestic voice going from cadence to cadence with the power and assurance of perfect art, and what is more, of perfect humanism.

Lovers of string music will hail with delight another number interpreted by the famous Flonzaley Quartet on a new Victor record. It is a minuet from Mozart's "Quartet in D Major." Mozart wrote many minuetts. Perhaps the most famous, and even today it may be, the most popular in the whole world (excepting Paderewski's), is to be found in his opera, "Don Giovanni." And this is one of the most graceful the most courtly, the most imaginative of them all. Turning from the sublime to music in a lighter vein we may even there find refreshment now and then. So we mention a couple of songs by Esther Walker, a young comedienne who presents them on the first of her Victor records. "Sahara" (We'll Soon Be Dry Like You) is a timely take-off on the coming event that will make the country—sure "enough" dry. The wails of the desert and the strummings of barbaric instruments introduce a grotesque lament for the departed "Whiskey wine's end." An orchestral accompaniment produces a dry and very fetching rhythm.

On the reverse of the record she sings "Nobody Knows" (And Nobody Seems to Care)—a cooing little ditty in Miss Walker's best style.

First appearance of Selvin's Novelty Orchestra
on Victor Dance Records

In a medley fox trot adapted from "Mandy," one of the successes of the Ziegfeld Follies of 1919, this orchestra makes its Victor debut. And this choice selection of jazz is calculated to let everybody know that six every live/ gentlemen are here with both feet—and all the necessary instruments.

On the reverse of the record the same orchestra plays a "Crazy One-Step." It rags and jizzes on Rubenstein's "Melody in F" (of all pieces) and then goes on to rag "The Old Oaken Bucket" at such a pace that you nearly dance your bones out of your skin.

Then the ever-popular Joseph C. Smith's Orchestra comes along with "Waiting"—a medley fox trot on a new Victor record. It has a slow, rolling, footy-wooty rhythm which is its own invitation to get up on the floor and trot. Things soon awake and harper—several at once. The composition, from the musical show "Listen Lester," introduces "Waiting" and "Show a Little Something New."

Turn the record over and brace up for the medley one step—"Mammy O' Mine." You must do it or you'll get left. A South African war dance is modified and made a dance of it. The song is a little of every note of this one step which introduces "Mammy O' Mine" and "Dixie Is Dixie Once More."

A sprightly song of an American soldier and his French sweetheart is sung on a Victor record just out by Billy Murray—"And He'd Say O-o-la-lal! Wee-wee." It is about a Yank who knows only a few words of French, but the couple seem to get along very well. The song is a little of every note of this one step which introduces "Mammy O' Mine" and "Dixie Is Dixie Once More."

On the other side of the record the American Quartet sings "Dixie Is Dixie Once More." It celebrates the return of a Southern recruit. The selection begins and ends with a fine burst of harmony. Whistling, trombones and jazz effects appear in the accompaniment.

You'll enjoy hearing Monroe Silver on a new Victor record get off "Cohen at the Pence." Those who went to Cohen's wedding and followed the course of his honeymoon will learn here that he has a set of children. Many of them crowd onto the "silver" it is to take them—and something happens that begins the day's tribulations which make the record so amusing.

The Victor Light Opera Company has called the gems from the two choicest musical comedies of the season—"Listen Lester" and "Somebody's Sweetheart" and presents them on a Victor record just issued. Those from "Listen Lester" include: Chorus, "Show a Little Something New"; tenor solo, "Oh! You Sweet Stuff"; soprano and tenor, "When Shadows Fall"; duet, "I'd Love To," and soprano and chorus, "Waiting."

Those from "Somebody's Sweetheart" are: Chorus, "Twinkle"; baritone solo, "On Wings of Doubt"; duet, "In the 'Old-Fashioned Way'; tenor solo, "Girl of My Heart"; and chorus, "It Gels Them All."

Think of the range of music to suit all tastes, to satisfy all moods, that the present age affords—from the noblest masterpieces, interpreted by the greatest artists in all the world to the latest hits direct from Broadway—all made possible to hear by your own record player.

And even though the Victrola is not among your valued possessions its endless variety of music may be heard as it appears new every month if you but visit your nearest Victor dealer and ask him to play any selections you wish to hear.

DAVIS IS RETURNED BY CLEVELAND REPUBLICANS

Karb's Defeat In Columbus Most Startling Result In Ohio Election.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—Probably the most startling result of yesterday's mayoralty election in Ohio was the defeat of George J. Karb, Columbus Democratic mayor, who was running for a sixth term. James J. Thomas, Republican, who has been city clerk for several years, defeated Karb by over 3,000. Fred J. Zimpher, Socialist, ran third, about 8,000 behind Karb.

Mayor Harry L. Davis, Republican of Cleveland, was re-elected for a third term by a clear majority. He had three rivals.

Cornel Schreiber was re-elected mayor of Toledo. He is an independent. In Canton, Herman R. Witter, Democrat, defeated Henry A. Schrantz, Republican, by a small majority. Schrantz was recently appointed acting mayor to succeed Charles E. Poorman, who was removed from office by Governor Cox for alleged failure to quell riots during the steel strike.

The mayoralty election in Youngstown, in doubt during early returns, went to Fred J. Wacker, Republican, who defeated Mayor A. W. Craver, Democrat, running for a fourth term, by a plurality estimated at 10,000 votes. Lancaster elected C. E. Ruble, a Republican. This is said to be the first time in the city's history that a Republican has been elected mayor there.

Other mayors elected yesterday were: Newark—H. A. Atherton, Democrat. Chillicothe—W. S. Story, Republican. Findlay—T. M. Mitchell, Democrat. Akron—W. J. Laub, Republican. Troy—Vans E. Deslen, Republican. Waverly—Jas. M. Logan, Republican. Chardon—R. H. Patchin, Republican. New Lexington—J. D. Barbee, Republican.

CRABBE BILL IS LOST BY WETS

CLEVELAND RETURNS MAYOR HARRY DAVIS

Cleveland, Nov. 5.—Mayor Harry L. Davis, Republican, was re-elected for a third term as mayor of Cleveland yesterday by a plurality of approximately 30,000 over his three opponents. Complete returns give Davis 63,071 first choice votes and R. H. Elshon, Democrat, his nearest competitor, 32,038. The Democrats elected Peter Henry, clerk of municipal court and two municipal judges.

At 10 o'clock this morning 588 out of 600 precincts in Cuyahoga county showed heavy wet gains, the vote being as follows: For ratifying national prohibition, yes, 46,823; no, 30,823. For the Crabbe act, yes, 43,241; no, 31,833. For 2.75 per cent beer, yes, 78,840; no, 46,271. For repeal of state prohibition, yes, 75,537; no, 46,924.

Louis E. Hill was elected mayor of Lakewood over his three opponents by a plurality of about 1,000.

Will Become Effective As Soon As Official Vote Is Certified.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—With the approval yesterday by the voters of the Crabbe state-wide prohibition enforcement bill, which is conceded by wet leaders, the measure will become effective as soon as the official result is certified by the secretary of state. Its failure to receive a two thirds vote necessary to make it effective upon its passage last spring made it possible for the wets to hold it up from becoming a law until it had been approved by popular vote.

When the measure becomes effective, which will be within a few days, or as soon as official results have been received and tabulated by the secretary of state, Ohio will find itself in a peculiar position. It will have constitutional prohibition and a law to enforce it, but no machinery to put the law into effect, except what may be accomplished by present state and local officials. The Miller bill which provided for the appointment of prohibition commissioner with a number of deputies to enforce the Crabbe act is held up by referendum. It was not submitted at yesterday's election because the referendum period of 90 days had not expired before the secretary of state was compelled to certify to boards of elections all proposals to be voted upon.

The Crabbe enforcement bill is very similar in its provisions to that of the federal prohibition enforcement measure which now is in operation by virtue of congress passing it over the president's veto. It contains provision for search and seizure and indirectly establishes five-tenths of one per cent as the maximum amount of alcohol any liquor may contain without being classed as intoxicant prohibited by the state constitution. In this particular the law corresponds to the federal law which specifically prohibits the manufacture and sale of liquor containing more than five-tenths of one per cent of alcohol. The federal law and the state law are so similar that enforcement officers of the two divisions will have very little trouble in enforcing the two acts jointly it is said.

Probably one of the most stringent features of the act is that pertaining to the search and seizure. It was to this provision that wets made their chief objection and appealed to the voters to disapprove it. The enforcement officers may enter and search any establishment other than a private dwelling if they believe illegal sales of liquor are being conducted within. To search a private dwelling, affidavits complaining that it is being used for illegal liquor sales first must be placed in the hands of enforcement officers. Drug stores are not permitted to sell liquor without obtaining permits from the prohibition commissioner.

It is expected that dry leaders again will appeal to the legislature when it reconvenes in December, to provide a prohibition commissioner and other machinery with which to enforce the Crabbe act.

DONAHEY SAYS VOTE IS WARNING TO ASSEMBLY

Columbus, Nov. 5.—State Auditor A. V. Donahey, one of the leading opponents of the classification taxation amendment issued this statement this morning: "The general assembly of Ohio set the stage and raised the curtain for the approval of the classification taxation amendment; its overwhelming defeat is a notice to this general assembly that the uniform rule of taxation must be made uniform in Ohio."

4 DRY PROPOSALS CARRIED IN OHIO BY BIG MAJORITY

Secretary of State Says Returns Indicate Bigger Margin Than 1918.

WETS ADMIT DEFEAT IN STATE WIDE LIQUOR FIGHT

Hot Municipal Contests Brought Out Large Vote Over Ohio.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—Ohio yesterday voted to remain in the dry column by a majority which may reach three times the size of that by which it voted prohibition a year ago, according to incomplete and unofficial returns received early today at the office of the secretary of state.

Secretary of State Smith said early today that partial returns from half the counties in the state indicated a dry majority on all four prohibition proposals of approximately 75,000.

Yesterday's dry victory came just a year after Ohio first voted a state-wide prohibition by a majority of 25,000, and less than six months after prohibition became effective on May 27th.

In addition to defeating the proposed repeal of state-wide prohibition, Ohio yesterday apparently voted by big majorities to uphold the action of the legislature in ratifying the federal prohibition amendment; to kill a proposal for the manufacture and sale of 2.75 percent alcohol, and to put into effect the Crabbe prohibition enforcement bill passed by the legislature last spring. All of the prohibition proposals were initiated by the wets.

H. L. Gibson, manager of the Ohio Home Rule association, early this morning issued a statement at Cincinnati conceding that the dries had carried three of the four prohibition proposals. He contended, however, that the vote was close on the proposed constitutional amendment permitting the manufacture and sale of beer containing 2.75 percent alcohol, with the chances favorable to the wets.

James A. White, manager of the Ohio Dry Federation, stood by a statement issued last night in which he declared all four prohibition proposals had been carried by the dries by margins ranging from 70,000 to 75,000. "And the dries are very glad that the soldier boys were home to help them," added Manager White early this morning.

In initiating the prohibition proposals, the wets claimed that the votes of returned soldiers would put Ohio back into the wet column.

Both the wets and dries put up unusually hard fights this year, knowing that the nation was watching to see what Ohio would do. Ohio is the first state that has held a referendum on the federal prohibition amendment, and its favorable vote yesterday may have reflected on national prohibition, dries contend.

On additional returns today, the dries continue to show increased majorities in almost every section of the state. Secretary Smith said that practically all counties showed large dry gains over last year.

The dries made a gain of more than 2,000 over last year in Cincinnati and showed large gains in practically all of the smaller cities and rural counties. The wets made a gain of 9,000 in Cleveland and smaller gains in Youngstown and several other of the smaller cities.

Indications today were that the proposed constitutional amendment, providing for the classification of property for taxation, was defeated by a majority of more than 100,000. The Ohio Taxpayers league, which sponsored the amendment, conceded its defeat late last night by more than 100,000. The amendment was victorious in the larger cities, but went down to defeat before a landslide of opposition votes in the smaller towns and rural communities.

DR. ROLLIN SOOK DIED TUESDAY

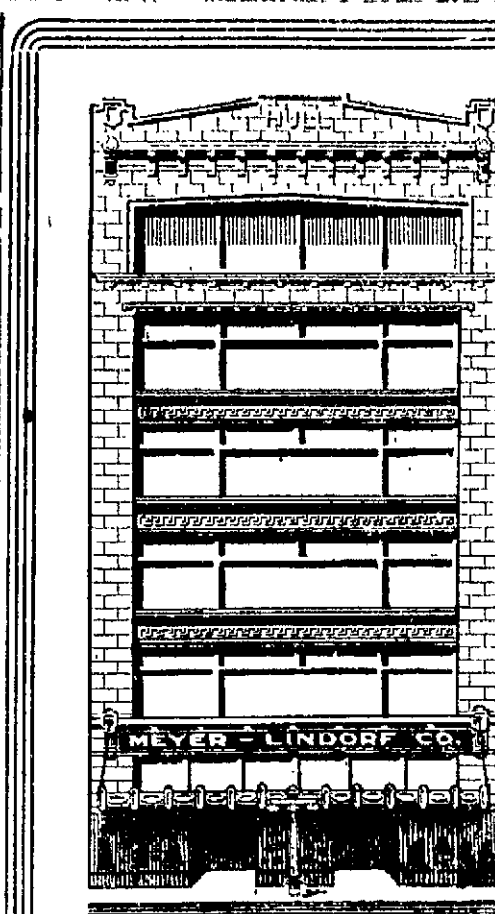

Well Known Eye and Ear Specialist Succumbs to Several Months of Ill Health.

The death of Dr. Rollin Joseph Sook, eye and ear specialist, occurred Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock in the home in Hudson avenue, following several years of ill health.

He was born in Steubenville May 12, 1866, and was the son of the late Dr. Oliver P. Sook and Lois A. Sook. He spent most of his life in this city, where he attended school and later practiced his profession. He had been identified with the activities of the city since 1888, when he was married to Miss Flora T. Rall, who survives him, together with two sons, Joseph Rollin Sook and Bentley Prescott Sook. He also leaves three sisters, Miss Gertrude E. Sook, Miss Marion, Mrs. W. D. Sater and Mrs. Arthur Dean of Cleveland.

Dr. Sook, for many years, was a member of the Trinity Episcopal church and a faithful member of the choir. He was a member of the Elks.

Funeral services will be held at the Trinity Episcopal church on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Burial will be private.

4 DRY PROPOSALS CARRIED IN OHIO BY BIG MAJORITY

Secretary of State Says Returns Indicate Bigger Margin Than 1918.

WETS ADMIT DEFEAT IN STATE WIDE LIQUOR FIGHT

Hot Municipal Contests Brought Out Large Vote Over Ohio.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—Ohio yesterday voted to remain in the dry column by a majority which may reach three times the size of that by which it voted prohibition a year ago, according to incomplete and unofficial returns received early today at the office of the secretary of state.

Secretary of State Smith said early today that partial returns to his office from half the counties in the state indicated a dry majority on all four prohibition proposals of approximately 75,000.

Yesterday's dry victory came just a year after Ohio first voted state-wide prohibition by a majority of 25,000, and less than six months after prohibition became effective on May 27th.

In addition to defeating the proposed repeal of state-wide prohibition, Ohio yesterday apparently voted by big majorities to uphold the action of the legislature in ratifying the federal prohibition amendment; to kill a proposal for the manufacture and sale of beer containing as high as 7.5 percent alcohol, and to put into effect the Crabbe prohibition enforcement bill passed by the legislature last spring. All of the prohibition proposals were initiated by the wets.

OHIO ELECTION HIGHLIGHTS

Ohio, largest dry state, voted to retain prohibition by majority estimated as high as 75,000, three times the majority by which the state voted state-wide prohibition a year ago.

Voted to uphold action of legislature in ratifying national prohibition amendment.

Voted against permitting sale of beer and wines containing up to 7.5 percent alcohol.

J. A. White, dry manager, claims dry majorities of from 50,000 to 75,000 on all prohibition proposals.

Drys gain more than 2,000 votes in Cincinnati, lost approximately 9,000 in Cleveland and gained from 8 to 25 votes in the precinct in many rural communities.

Crabbe enforcement law becomes effective as soon as vote certified by secretary of state.

Socialist majority candidates defeated everywhere. Mayor Davis, of Cleveland, and Schreiber of Toledo re-elected. Mayor Karb, Democrat of Columbus defeated by J. J. Thomas, Republican.

Most local bond issues carried. Special session of legislature in order to face taxation issues as result of defeat of classification.

Karb's Defeat In Columbus Most Startling Result In Ohio Election.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—Probably the most startling result of yesterday's mayoralty election in Ohio was the defeat of George J. Karb, Columbus, Democratic mayor, who was running for a sixth term. James J. Thomas, Republican, who has been city clerk for several years, defeated Karb by over 3,000. Fred J. Zimmer, Socialist, ran third, about 3,000 behind Karb.

Mayor Henry L. Davis, Republican of Cleveland, was re-elected for a third term by a clear majority. He had three rivals.

Cornel Schreiber was re-elected mayor of Toledo. He is an independent. In Canton, Herman E. Witter, Democrat, defeated Henry A. Schrantz, Republican, by a small majority. Schrantz was recently appointed acting mayor to succeed Charles E. Poorman, who was removed from office by Governor Cox for alleged failure to quell riots during the steel strike.

The mayoralty election in Youngstown, in doubt during early returns, went to Fred J. Warnock, Republican, who defeated Mayor A. W. Craver, Democrat, running for a fourth term, by a plurality estimated at 10,000 votes.

Lancaster elected C. E. Ruble, a Republican. This is said to be the first time in the city's history that a Republican has been elected mayor there.

Other mayors elected yesterday were: Newark—H. A. Atherton, Democrat. Chillicothe—W. S. Story, Republican. Findlay—T. M. Mitchell, Democrat. Akron—W. J. Lath, Republican.

Troy—Vans P. Denlen, Republican. Waverly—Jas. M. Logan, Republican. Chardon—R. H. Patchin, Republican. New Lexington—J. B. Barbee, Republican.

NEWARK VOTERS APPROVE MAYOR'S ADMINISTRATION

G. O. P. DRIVE AGAINST THESE TWO OFFICIALS FAILS IN ITS PURPOSE AS VOTERS WEIGH THEIR MERITS.

BOLTON IS ELECTED FIRST MUNICIPAL JUDGE OF NEW CITY POLICE COURT

Republicans Elect Frye, Auditor; Marvin, Treasurer, and Scott President of Council—Faust, Knauber and Bazler Returned As Councilmen At Large.

Mayor H. A. Atherton and Henry C. Ashcraft were returned winners on the Democratic ticket at yesterday's election, after one of the hardest fought political battles of recent years.

R. L. Williams, present president of the city council, was defeated for re-election on the Democratic ticket by H. H. Scott and Bert O. Horton, Democratic candidate for auditor and Guy W. Lawyer, Democratic candidate for treasurer, were defeated by Cliff Frye and Roy B. Marvin, Republicans. P. W. Faust, Democrat, T. A. Bazler and Frank Knauber, Republicans, were re-elected councilmen-at-large.

Two new faces will be found in the city council after the first of the year. Fred Wolverton, Democrat, defeated J. R. Ashbrook, Republican, in the second ward by a majority of 141 and George Gearhart, Republican, was elected over Charles Spees, Democrat, by a majority of 22 in the sixth ward. Charles Redman, Republican, had no opposition in the first ward and J. Phil Baker, Democrat, had no opposition in the third. T. D. Keyes, Republican, defeated Carl Yontz, Democrat, by a majority of 59 votes in the fourth ward and S. O. Riggs, Republican, defeated W. H. Butler, Jr., Democrat, by a majority of 14 votes in the fifth ward. There will now be six Republicans in the city council with three Democrats and a Republican presiding officer.

A total vote of 5,141 was cast for the head of the ticket, and it was not as large as had been predicted. After the polls closed and the count began, there was less interest manifested in the result than in previous years, this fact being demonstrated by the crowds on the street not being as large and less telephone calls being received.

The first precinct reported officially at 8:15 at the hour of elections it being Newark township north. This was followed intermittently by others during the night until the last reported at 2:15 o'clock this morning and the officials locked up to receive the country predicts returns this morning.

The dry organization carried their four issues in the city, the repeal of the Crabbs law being defeated by a majority of 222. The amendment for exemption, which would permit the manufacture of 2.75 alcohol beverages was only defeated in the city by 16 votes. The repeal of state wide prohibition was defeated by 67 votes and the ratification of the dry amendment by 92.

The classification of property in the city was defeated by a majority of 587. The two mill special tax levy proposition carried by a majority of 528. The result of its fate will not be known until all country districts have reported and the vote tabulated.

The surprise of the day was furnished by the city firemen and they proved that they are past masters of the art of politics. Their initiative on the double platoon proposition for the city carried by a vote of 3,081 in its favor against 1,528 against it, a majority of 1,553, almost two to one.

CRABBE BILL IS LOST BY WETS

Will Become Effective As Soon As Official Vote Is Certified.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—With the approval yesterday by the voters of the Crabbe state-wide prohibition enforcement bill, which is conceded by wet leaders, the measure will become effective as soon as the official result is certified by the secretary of state. Its failure to receive a two thirds vote necessary to make it effective upon its passage last spring made it possible for the wets to hold it up from becoming a law until it had been approved by popular vote.

When the measure becomes effective, which will be within a few days, or as soon as official results have been received and tabulated by the secretary of state, Ohio will find itself in a peculiar position. It will have constitutional prohibition and a law to enforce it, but no machinery to put the law into effect, except what may be accomplished by present state and local officials. The Miller bill which provided for the appointment of prohibition commissioner with a number of deputies to enforce the Crabbe act is held up by referendum. It was not submitted at yesterday's election because the referendum period of 90 days had not expired before the secretary of state was compelled to certify to boards of elections all proposals to be voted upon.

The Crabbe enforcement bill is very similar in its provisions to that of the federal prohibition enforcement measure which now is in operation by virtue of congress passing it over the president's veto. It contains provision for search and seizure and indirectly establishes five-tenths of one per cent as the maximum amount of alcohol any liquor may contain without being charged as intoxicant prohibited by the state constitution. In this particular the law corresponds to the federal law which specifically prohibits the manufacture and sale of liquor containing more than five-tenths of one per cent of alcohol. The federal law and the state law are so similar that enforcement officers of the two divisions will have very little trouble in enforcing the two acts jointly.

It is said. Probably one of the most stringent features of the act is that pertaining to the search and seizure. It was to this provision that wets made their chief objection and appealed to the voters to disapprove it. The enforcement of the law may enter and search any establishment other than a private dwelling if they believe illegal sales of liquor are being conducted within. To search a private dwelling, affidavits complaining that it is being used for illegal liquor sales first must be placed in the hands of enforcement officers. Drug stores are not permitted to sell liquor without obtaining permits from the prohibition commissioner.

It is expected that dry leaders again will appeal to the legislature when it reconvenes in December, to provide a prohibition commissioner and other machinery with which to enforce the Crabbe act.

MAINE SENATE FOR SUFFRAGE.

Oyster Bay, Nov. 5.—Oyster Bay glowed today over the election of Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt Jr., to the state assembly and shared with him his happiness at the birth of an "election day" baby.

One topic of discussion in this little town, where the name of Roosevelt is worshipped, was "young Teddy's" remarkable run in yesterday's election. The boy baby has been named Quentin, after the ex-presidents son, who was killed in France in aerial combat.

The child in company with another little girl had gone to a grocery near her home. In some way in attempting to cross the street, she was struck by a machine driven by John Miller, corner of Prospect and National Drive. She was removed to the City hospital where it was found her right leg had been broken. It is not determined whether she suffered internal injuries. Dr. H. H. Postle is the attending physician.

Columbus Mayor Loses Campaign In Many Years of Political Life—Winner Has 4895 Plurality.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—Mayor George J. Karb of Columbus, yesterday suffered his first defeat as a candidate for public office. He was a candidate for re-election as mayor for a sixth term. He has served more than 20 years as mayor and sheriff of Franklin county.

His successful opponent, yesterday was James J. Thomas, Republican, present city clerk. Thomas received a plurality over Mayor Karb of 4,895 on all choice tickets the vote being Karb, 26,288; Thomas, 31,184.

Continuous Pictures.

The showings today at the Auditorium are continuous and "The House of Bondage" also "Doug Fairbanks are the attractions that are sure to pack this theater to the doors.

"The House of Bondage" with Lottie Pickford as the star, was written by Reginald Wright Kaufman and is said to be a wonderful photoplay. Manager Fenberg requests his patrons to try and get to the theater early, for he wants all to see the double bill if possible, therefore the pictures will be shown today right through the supper hour and run this evening until all have seen the both features.

Arizona

Marjorie Daw and Kathleen Kirkham have become inseparably identified with Douglas Fairbanks' pictures, because of their having played in all of his current productions.

They play the important female roles in his elaborate screen production of

Arthur Aylesworth and Eva Williams are being starred in this laughing vehicle, which is teaming over with merriment, fun and merriment.

Ham S. Hart picture (which arrived O. K. yesterday) in which Hart is seen in "Branding Broadway"—Gladys Brockwell is screened in her latest William Fox feature "Chasing Rainbows" and as Sadie, she wins them all.

Sadie is a waitress, and she doesn't know much about grammar, but she has a heart as big as the chain of railroad restaurants for which she works.

That is why everyone likes Sadie.

Perhaps also that is why she has given her love not too wisely to a drummer named Lacy, and has spent many happy hours planning their home-to-be.

Sadie's faith in mankind takes a terrible drop when she learns that Lacy is married and has a little boy. To get away from her sorrow she has herself transferred to Bagdad, in Death Valley.

"Arizona" by Augustus Thomas, will be shown at the Auditorium today. Marjorie Daw plays "Bonita" and Miss Kirkham is seen as "Estrella." Both these parts have been played by famous actresses on the stage and Misses Daw and Kirkham feel highly complimented at being selected to play these roles respectively in the screen production. Mr. Fairbanks plays "Lieut. Denton," a part admirably suited to his dashing personality. Theodore Roberts plays "Canby," Frederick Burton, "Colonel Bonham," Frank Campbell "Kelley" and Raymond Hatton "Tony." This feature is seen together with "The House of Bondage."

She Walked in Her Sleep.

A "Silk Nightie" and a pretty girl, sometimes cause trouble, especially if the girl is a somnambulist. Well, here is a girl, attired in bedroom apparel, who enters the apartment of a young married man, who has recently quarreled with his wife—and the way that she carries on is something scandalous. Picture yourself a husband, you have quarreled with your sweet young wife and "wife" has returned to the parental roof and mother to talk things over. After talking with mother, she decides to return home to see what the effect of their estrangement has caused hubby to celebrate or commit suicide. She enters the apartment and finds a beautiful young girl in a silk nightie, making free with her spouse. You try to explain, but—was man ever born who could explain a compromising position such as this to a woman, especially if that woman is his wife? The whole affair was an unfortunate occurrence and, as the young somnambulist's presence in your apartment during the wee small hours of the morning is not the result of an express invitation on your part, don't you think that "wife" should forget the whole thing? Enter it in the fam-

Auditorium Notes.

Saturday, the Auditorium will offer clever Enid Bennett in the Paramount "Fuss and Feathers." This is one of Miss Bennett's best photoplays and is shown together with the Pathe News and seen only Saturday at that theater. Manager Fenberg received a wire yesterday from a very good friend of his, Earle Transue, a tenor of note, who is en route to New York, where he has accepted a position with The Metropolitan Opera Co., stating he was stopping off to pay Fenberg a visit. Fenberg wired him that he was to sing at the Auditorium Saturday and Sunday and would take no for an answer.

Chasing Rainbows.

The Alhambra is surely giving the patrons their moneys worth these days. For again today a big double feature program is seen, for besides the Wilson on the Salt Lake Railroad. It is a "wide open" town of the gold rush days. Billy Thompson, manager of the road restaurant there, had asked for a waitress "with a frosty face and an icy mitt, that just hates men. The others get married in a week."

So Sadie is sent in answer to Billy's request—and Billy is the first to fall in love with her!

Bill Hart.

C. Gardner Sullivan, the celebrated Thomas H. Ince, scenario writer, has again rung the bullseye with "Branding Broadway." William S. Hart's latest Arcturion picture, which is shown at the Alhambra theater today together with Gladys Brockwell. And it is as different from Sullivan's usual stories as day from night and every whit as good as his best. Whether it be comedy, tragedy, comedy drama, or what not—C. Gardner Sullivan seems equally

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAM

NEWCOMB CARLTON, PRESIDENT

GEORGE W. ATKINS, VICE-PRESIDENT

DELVIDERE BROOKS, VICE-PRESIDENT

RECEIVED AT

George M. Fenberg,
Mgr. Auditorium, Newark, Ohio.

Friend Fenberg:

Pasing through Friday, may stop off. I am en-route to New York to take up my position with Metropolitan Opera Co.

EARLE TRANSUE.

Note:—Earle Transue, is a distinguished American Tenor and believe me if he stops in Newark Friday, my friends and patrons will hear him in a Song Recital.

at home. His is a rare genius—the sort one marvels at and finds difficult to define.

Dainty Seena Owen, who appears as leading woman for William S. Hart in "Branding Broadway," is one of the most pleasing of the younger actresses, with beauty, talent and personality to spare. She has had a wide screen experience, has appeared in Paramount pictures as well as with other production companies, and is always to be relied upon for a satisfactory performance of a given role. As the little waitress in "Branding Broadway," she is said to give one of her best portrayals, ingenious, demure and wholly charming.

The Crimson Gardenia.

Rex Beach's latest contribution to screen sensations is "The Crimson Gardenia," newest of his popular novels to be pictured for Goldwyn. It comes to the Alhambra theater beginning Friday.

The striking title is derived in a manner equally striking. A single gardenia worn on the black domino of a participant in the New Orleans Mardi Gras becomes crimsoned with the man's blood when he is stabbed.

Back of this action are the machinations of a band of counterfeiters. They believe they have been betrayed and murder their former confederate, the wearer of the gardenia. This example of lawlessness brings about strange complications in the lives of many people. Chief of these are Roland Van Dam, a sightseer mingling with the carnival crowds, and Madelon Dorette a girl searching for her cousin—the very man who was murdered.

The Four Flushers.

The popular Hale Hamilton, who will be seen in his latest comedy-drama success, a Metro picture called "The Four Flushers," at the Alhambra theater, on Sunday next, is one of the few great American actors who has the unusual distinction of being commanded by the British King, while he was in London starring in that famous success "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford," to give a royal command performance at Windsor Castle.

This is an honor of which few American stars can boast, and is a mark of the highest achievement in the English theaters. It is no wonder that an actor of Mr. Hamilton's calibre should rise to the heights he has attained on the screen, and it is said that in "The Four Flushers" which is his latest big Metro success, he portrays a role very similar to that of the famous financier of the stage in which he created a sensation internationally.

THE GRAND.

Large crowds visited the Grand theater again yesterday afternoon and evening to see Douglas Fairbanks in "His Majesty The American." The onlooker fairly quakes with emotion when Doug leaps from the castle window.

INCOME TAX TO BE NEXT ISSUE

Defeat of Classification At Polls Yesterday Means
That Legislature Must Act to Increase State Revenue.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—Defeat of the classification tax law proposal which which is conceded by its supporters to more than 100,000 majority at yesterday's election, puts the state legislature up against the proposition of revising the state's taxation laws under the present system of taxation so that many hundreds of thousands of dollars extra revenue will be brought into the state treasury to offset the loss of liquor revenues and the general increase in cost of government. The legislature will reconvene in order to work out the new system of taxation.
Defeat of the classification proposal makes it almost certain, it is believed, that one of the first taxation measures to be recommended by the joint legislature committee on taxation will be on graduated income tax, modeled after that of the federal income tax.

Some form of graduated automobile tax that will greatly increase the revenue from licensing motor vehicles also probably will be recommended. To form such a taxation law under the present system of taxation proved to be a difficult task last winter when the legislature was in session. Present constitutional provisions make it almost impossible to enact such a measure, the committee's experts declared then.
Had the classification amendment been adopted, it is said that such a law could have been worked out without any difficulty.

It is expected that the joint legislature taxation committee will begin at once the task of drafting new taxation laws in order that they will be ready for consideration by the legislature as soon as it reconvenes.

The legislature, it is said, may also consider the advisability of enacting laws to limit debts which municipalities and other taxing districts may incur through the issuance of bonds or otherwise.

AT THE HARTMAN.

Patricia's Collage and her admirer company which appeared at the Auditorium last Saturday are delighting audiences at the Hartman theater in Columbus this week.

Coming to the Hartman for a three-day engagement beginning Thursday night, Nov. 6th, "She Walked in Her Sleep" is by Mark Swain, author of "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath" and other recent successes. It is described as a "gloom dispeller" and the advance agent says that it "starts fast, glides along swiftly and never knows a dull moment. Arthur Aylesworth is the principal funmaker, assisted by Eva Williams, Pretty Rose Williams, Ruth Hammond, the young person who "Walked in Her Sleep," and who is dressed with a figure of delightful proportions and baby doll face Leah Winstler, Walter Walker and others.

"Chu Chin Chow" the biggest spectacle play ever staged, comes to the Hartman for a week's stand, Monday night, Nov. 10. It is a vivid picture story of ancient China, written by Oscar Ascho, with music by Frederick Norton and was staged in America by F. Lyall Sweet. Marjorie Woods heads the large cast and there is a ballet of sixty.

DISAPPEARANCE OF SCHOOL PRINCIPAL REMAINS MYSTERY

J. Howard McIntyre.

The fate of J. Howard McIntyre, school principal of Conneaut, Ohio, who mysteriously disappeared at 9 p.m. Halloween, continues to baffles the searchers. It was thought at first that McIntyre was the victim of a Halloween prank, but this belief was dismissed when his disappearance extended into days. He was seen at a short distance from his home. This overtook and he were found near that spot later. He is married and has three children.

ROTARIANS ELECT THREE NEW MEMBERS

Three new members were received into membership in the Rotary club at the noon meeting on Tuesday at the Atlantic Temple. They were C. Harrington Davis, W. H. McElroy and Leslie Reggs. The address of welcome on behalf of the club was made by Rotarian Frank L. Reggs.

The president of the club read a letter from Rotarian Frank L. Johnson, former secretary of the Newark Y. M.
C. A., now on foreign service. Johnson's letter gave many intimate impressions of Constantinople from which he had just returned.

The remainder of the luncheon hour was given over to a contest in which the Rotarians tried their luck in forecasting the outcome of the city election. The results will be announced at the next meeting and prizes awarded to those whose predictions came closest to the actual results.

The club is making plans to entertain John D. Hartley, governor of Ohio
Rotary club at an early meeting.

Seems to Be General Opinion.

"Tell me what company you keep,
and I will tell you what you are," is a proverb that is found in similar form
among the French, Spanish, Italians, Dutch and others. Anything so widely accepted must be true.

DELIGHTED WITH WHAT DRECO DID

Suffered for Years With Stomach Trouble, Nervousness, Pains in Back and Limbs, Dizziness and Constipation. All Gone Now.

"I have just finished taking a bottle of Dreco, and it has made me feel so much better and stronger that I can do all my own housework," said Mrs. Ora Toney, 132 Buckingham St., Newark, O.
"Before I began taking Dreco," she continued, "I was in a terribly rundown condition; couldn't eat anything hardily, and didn't sleep much. My trouble started several years ago, and although I tried many different things, nothing prescribed for me seemed to do me any good, and I was almost a physical wreck."

"After eating, I would feel all bloated with sour gas, and my heart would beat so fast sometimes. I would think it was going to jump out of my body. This made me very nervous, and I was easy to get excited. I felt so badly that I couldn't take any interest in things.
Nearly every day I would read in the papers about what Dreco had done for others, and many cases just fitted my symptoms exactly, so I talked the matter over with my husband, and we decided to give Dreco a trial. After a few days it began to brace me up, and I knew I had at last found the right thing my system needed."

"I am now so much better that I can eat most anything I want, and as much as I want, and do not feel any bad effects at all. My husband says I sleep like a log, and he can hardly wake me in the morning. I never have a headache now and feel strong and well. I am delighted with what Dreco did for me."

When the liver, kidneys or bowels become inactive, the system fails to throw off the poisons, and slowly, day by day, we are weakening our bodies till a breakdown comes. Sometimes it takes the form of the above case; Dreco causes the organs to carry off these toxins and waste matter, and keep the system free of these poisons.
All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in this city by Evans' Cut Rate Drug Store.

GRAND OPERA STAR TO APPEAR IN CONCERT GIVEN BY FESTIVAL ASSO.

Frances Ingram of Metropolitan Opera Company Will Render Fine Program Thursday Night—Association
Has Good Record of Splendid Musical Events In Past.

The Granville Festival association was incorporated not for profit 14 years ago with Arthur L. Judson as president, Mrs. C. B. White as treasurer, and Mrs. Burton Case as secretary. Since that time it has been a constant factor in the securing of better music for the community and for the promotion of a higher conception of music.

Officers of the association are: M. E. Stickney, president; Mrs. J. S. Jones, vice president; Mrs. C. B. White, treasurer; Mrs. Burton Case, secretary; Mrs. T. S. Johnson, membership; F. S. Robinson, auditor; W. C. Elough, Jr., business manager; F. G. Detweiler, assistant business manager; Alvah Schumaker, publicity.

Concerts for 1919-1920:
Thursday, November 6—Frances Ingram, contralto.
Thursday, December 11—Harold Henry, pianist.
Saturday, January 17, 1920—Ernest Davis, tenor.
Wednesday, February 18—Isador Berger, violinist.
Friday, March 5—The Zoellner String Quartette.

STUART'S STORE POPULAR WITH COLLEGE STUDENTS

George Stuart succeeded Mills King at the southside jewelry store, having come to Granville from Marysville, where he had been engaged in a prosperous business with a successful jeweler of that place. His work as optician has been widely commended, while his side line of college supplies has given his store a vogue with the young people. He is still among the "younger set" in the business of the old town but he is already recognized as a good citizen who is interested in promoting the best interests of the town of his adoption. His new home in Centerville street (the Newark road) is nearing completion and is one of the architectural ornaments of that rapidly growing suburb of Granville.

Mrs. Stuart was formerly Miss Hazel Perfect, of Marysville.

Money in Blueberries.
The average profit from an acre of Maine blueberry land is said to be about $100, and as no fertilizer or cultivation is necessary these berries are a quick and profitable crop. This is one of Washington county's big industries. For instance, the whole section from Porcupine mountain to the east Machias line is practically all blueberry land. Several factories are devoted to the canning of the berries.

Brass Most Useful Alloy.
Brass is perhaps the best known and most useful alloy. It is formed by fusing together copper and zinc. Different proportions of these metals produce brasses possessing marked distinctive properties. The proportions of the different ingredients are seldom precisely alike; these depend upon the requirements of various uses for which the alloys are intended. Peculiar qualities of the constituent metals also exercise influence on the results.

QUERRIES AND QUESTIONS.

What has become of the Greater Granville club and all its places for civic betterment? Are the men planning a "surprise" to spring on the public which shall outdo the work of the women's federation? Whose business is it to guarantee the safety of the bridge over the Raceoon on the Columbus road, and who should be held responsible in case of accident to travelers on the highway at this point?

Is the law requiring drivers of trucks or wagons to display a red banner at the end of any projection beyond the bed of the vehicle a Federal or merely a state law? And is there such a law in Ohio?

When may Granville expect the privilege of electric lighting in the homes as well as new lights on the streets?

Query—Is there a village ordinance prohibiting the running of motorcycles through the streets with wide open cut-outs? If so why is it not enforced?

YES, THE MAYOR DOES MANAGE TO KEEP BUSY

Although claiming Pataskala as his birthplace, Mayor C. D. Coons today is ranked as Granville's leading citizen, not only by virtue of his office, but for the numerous activities which stamp

him as a man of action and of unusual administrative ability.

He first came to Granville as principal of the high school and after three years as superintendent of the public schools, he became successively instructor in mathematics and physics, assistant professor and professor of physics in Denison university. He served a year as treasurer of the institution, was a graduate manager of Denison athletics for five years, is now chairman of the Denison university athletic board of control and a member of the executive committee of the National Intercollegiate Athletic association. He served during the period of the war as chairman of county draft board and as chairman of the township war work committee.

Along academic lines he has been no less active, being a member of the Ohio Academy of Science, Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and a member of the American Physical society. Since June he has been business manager of Denison university. His fraternal affiliations are with Center Star lodge F. & A. M. and with Lambda Deuteron Chapter Phi Gamma Delta. On his graduation from Denison in 1909 he received the degrees of B. S. and M. S., afterward taking two years of graduate work in the department of physics in the University of Chicago. He is recognized as an eloquent orator on occasion, though he never seeks, as he never shirks, the occasion for such service.

Mrs. Coons was formerly Miss Blonda Watt, a student in Denison.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE IS GRANT HOSP. GRAD.

Alice Jane Wilkinson was graduated from Grant hospital school for nurses Jan. 24, 1906. She engaged in private duty in Columbus six years and after special preparation took up public health nursing and was engaged in that work when called to service. She was in service one year in the Army Nurse Corps when she was released by the signing of the armistice. She was assigned by the American Red Cross to duty in Granville township as Red Cross public health nurse where her work has already begun to tell, especially in the public schools.

MISS ALICE WILKINSON

The President's condition is somewhat improved, but our private advisers are that his opinion of Jim Reed and Hiram Johnson is not.—Houston Post.

ACTIVE IN CONSERVING HEALTH IN COUNTY

MRS. FRANK A. RAY.

Mrs. Frank A. Ray is perfectly equipped, both by nature and by training, for the responsible positions she fills in conserving public health, not only in this community, but throughout Licking county and even in surrounding counties.

Her classes in nursing are firmly established in the affections of the people and will be continued this winter under her observation, with the assistance of Miss Alice Wilkinson, the Red Cross public health nurse. Mrs. Ray conducted classes last year in Columbus, Newark, Granville and Alexandria. She has belonged heart and soul in Granville ever since her first visit here, 26 years ago, in her capacity of nurse assistant superintendent of St. Luke's hospital, Chicago. It was in Granville that she met her future husband and it was to Granville that she returned after their purchase of the farm on the Newark road, which she christened "Holmdale," and has dedicated to the uses of a large hospitality.

Mr. Ray is head of the department of mining engineering in O. S. U., her eldest daughter, Miss Helen Ray, is embarked on her second year's training in St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, having graduated from Denison in 1917, and her younger daughter Miss Frances, is vice president of the freshman class.

Mrs. Ray is chairman of the Granville unit of the Red Cross, a member of the Licking County General District Board of Health, a member of the executive board of the Licking County Chapter Red Cross, chairman of Nursing Activities in Licking county.

JUNIOR RED CROSS PLANS PLAY GROUND

The Junior Red Cross, of Granville, has as its leader Miss Una Ackley, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ackley, of East College street, whose training and experience as a teacher in the public schools admirably fits her for this responsible position. Other members of the executive committee are Mrs. M. M. Shoemaker, Mrs. Fred Buxton, Claire Geach, Winifred Green.

Membership in the Junior Red Cross is 25 cents, 60 per cent is to be devoted to child welfare work in devastated Europe, 40 per cent is to be used toward equipping a play ground in Granville. Every boy and girl in Granville is urged to join. The badge is the same as the Senior Red Cross.

WAR DELAYED STUDIES WILL FINISH IN JUNE

Walter A. Hilscher has been in Granville several years, having graduated from Doane academy. For two years he was a member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet, for two years business manager of the college paper, subscription manager two years, assistant in physics three years. By reason of his army service he will not receive his degree from Denison until next June, when he expects to enter electrical engineering.

His engagement to Miss Margaret Colwell, daughter of the late Dr. R. S. Colwell and Mrs. Colwell, was announced some time ago.

Hilscher is president of Sigma Chi fraternity, business manager of the Denisonian, chief electrician for the automatic telephone, assistant in physics in Denison university. He was in the army service nine months in Indiana, Virginia and Camp Taylor.

THE POOR DOCTOR.
Miss Wilkinson (public health nurse) addressing a grade of young children in the public school:
"Now, children, I am not to doctor you when you are sick but to teach you how to take care of your bodies so that you may preserve your health and never be sick at all."
Small child—"Oh, My! What will Dr. Loveless do then?"

SOLDIER JOINS FATHER IN DRUG BUSINESS

W. P. Ullman, born in Loudenville, where for many years he was one of the prominent business men, decided to bring his family to Granville, where his son, then a child of eleven or twelve, might have the educational advantages of the college town. The move was made in 1906, and almost from his first day's residence in the town of his adoption, he belonged to Granville in every sense of the word. While still loyal to his home town, he at once transferred his interests and his efficiency to the development of his business in the new field. He took over the book and stationary business of W. H. Kussmaul to which he added his own large stock of drugs. He promptly took up the work of the church and Sunday school in the Baptist denomination, and contributed no small share to the musical interests of the place as tenor in the festival chorus and a member of the Denison orchestra, freely giving of his time and energy in the selling of tickets for their many attractions.

W. P. ULLMAN

During the epidemic of 1918 he labored night and day, proving of invaluable assistance to the two physicians who alone were left to combat the disease of the entire community. His unflinching patience and cheerfulness under the strain are gratefully remembered by the Granville public. Since the return from army service of his son, Sergeant Kenneth Ullman, the firm has been changed to "W. P. Ullman & Son." Mrs. Ullman was formerly Miss Jane Lyon, of Africa.

Kenneth Ullman first entered Granville affairs as a little boy of 12 years he came with his parents from Loudenville. The intervening years have been filled with the business of finishing his public school and college courses, with a year's successful business in the south and another year's service in Camp Sherman. That he no longer is "little" either physically or mentally is attested by his six feet of brawn and muscle and by the splendid efficiency with which he has discharged his business and army obligations. He is affiliated with Center Star lodge F. & A. M. and with Sigma Chi fraternity.

After the two years' absence from home, "little old Granville" looked good to him and he has entered his father's business as junior member of the firm of W. P. Ullman and Son.

Work Hard and Play Hard.
Regular daily relaxation through enthusiastic hobby riding has the advantage of promoting emotional control, an indispensable factor in the winning of success. To work hard, to play ardently, to live a decent, hygienic life in general, sums up pretty comprehensively the secret of business success. Following this plan, men of only average ability can and do advance by rapid stages, while without its aid more brilliant men falter and fail.

Persian Cookery.
Cookery among the well-to-do classes in Persia is extravagant—partly because they are lavishly hospitable, partly because all house servants are fed from the leavings of the master's table. Tiny chickens, quails, pigeons, doves and young partridges are handed hot, on the spit, to each guest.

Needs Brains First of All.
"In our complex civilization and scarcely knows what ethical principles to follow," says a writer. One might set forth reasonably confident in the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Take Aspirin With Water

If your Aspirin tablets have the name "Bayer" stamped on them, they are genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," proved safe by millions of people. The name "Bayer" identifies the true world-famous Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over eighteen years.

Always drink one or two glasses of water after taking the tablets. Each unbroken "Bayer package" contains proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, and for Pain.

Always say "Bayer" when buying Aspirin. Then look for the safety "Bayer Cross" on the package and on the tablets.

Handy tin boxes of twelve tablets cost but a few cents. Drug lists also sell larger packages.

THE SEASON'S NEWEST MUSIC

GREAT DUET IS SUNG BY CARUSO AND DE LUCA

A wealth of artistry is laid on the altars of music this month to gratify the desires of music-lovers everywhere

ONIZETTI'S "Elisabetta," though an opera now seldom staged, contains some superb music, which fortunately will never quite be lost to the world as long as there is a Caruso to interpret its art and a Victrola to perpetuate their charms. This month the thrilling duet "Venti Secoli" is presented by Caruso and De Luca on a new Victrola record. It is the scene where Nemora, the youth seeking a love potion that shall win him Adina, a wealthy young woman, has paid his all for the magic fluid. He fain would buy another bottle to make sure of the effect, but alas! for money. His rival, a young sergeant, appears, and in this duet suggests that he enlist and thus be richer by the fee of twenty crowns. The interpretation by these artists—the foremost tenor and baritone of the times—is remarkable indeed.

Another treat is in store also for music-lovers in Jascha Heifetz's interpretation of "Guitarre" on a Victrola record just issued. It is as though one is off on a journey into a land of clear dream and living fantasy, under the guidance of an enchanter whose every step causes the springs to flow where he has trod, whose every passing touch makes the leaves to glitter as with silver dew! Every Heifetz interpretation is like a character from some great novelist or some great dramatist, absolutely itself differing from all others. Here is another record with the master-touch, and words cannot approach its wonder.

The Sterling Trio presents this month on a Victor record a wistful little Southern song rich in harmony, "Carolina Sunshine." On the reverse Charles Hart and Elliott Shaw sing "Golden Gate," another song of "one's own country," this time of the far west. John Steel, on a Victor record just issued a young man's tribute to his mother—"The Hand That Rocked My Cradle Rules My Heart." It will do your own heart good. When you turn the record over you may expect to hear from the title "My Baby's Arms," a mother's tribute to her little one. Instead, it is a young man that sings again, and the "baby" is a full grown, sweet, wholesome and adorable young blossom. The song was one of the successes of the Ziegfeld Follies of 1919. It is given in John Steel's particular style, with all the enchantment of youth in it.

Similar because of its sacredness, but contrasting in its simplicity Fritz Kreisler has seized upon a plain negro melody for an interpretation with his violin on a Victrola record just issued. It is frequently left to a great artist to show us that beauty which lies in the simple and that things we are only too prone to take for granted. Kreisler has made of the simple and sincere measures of this "negro spiritual" a memorable record.

A sextet of charming numbers, adapted primarily for educational purposes in the school or home, have been arranged on Victor records. One is "An Irish Folk Song," interpreted by Laura Littlefield. On the reverse of the record she also presents "All Love, But a Day" and "The Year's at the Spring." For pure patriotism William Sterling Battis gives a rousing "American Flag" on another record, the reverse of which contains "The Name of Old Glory" by the same reciter. The Victor Military Band makes its educational contribution in selections from "American Country Dances," the first of which is "The Circle No. 2." On the reverse of the same record appears "Portland Fancy"—No. 1. "Texarkana"—No. 2. "Young America." A couple of sentimental songs on one Victor record enliven the month's repertoire of musical offerings. "When I'm Gone You'll Soon Forget" is presented by the Peerless Quartet. On the reverse you'll find "Weeping Willow Lane," sung, by Henry Burr and Frank Croton.

Kreisler

McCormack sings a delightful ballad "Roses of Picardy," which John McCormack interprets on a new Victrola record, is a song taken almost at random from the many beautiful songs the new day has given to the world and is translated into a thing of more exalted beauty by the voice of John McCormack, an artist who can find beauty and redisclose it in everything he touches.

McCormack sings a delightful ballad

The sweetest rose of all the millions that bloom in Picardy is the girl-rose to whom the song is addressed. Advancing the thought several years from the sentiment above expressed, we are in a mood to listen to Schumann-Heink sing with tender melody a "Cradle Song," as she does on a Victrola record now appearing. Here is a song which has captured the very spirit of motherhood—gentle, slow, grave, absorbed, its every bar, as Schumann-Heink sings it, instinct with the feeling of rest and sleep and security that passes by what enchantment, from the soul of the mother into the united soul of the child. It is sung to the full orchestra with the silvery vibrations of tiny bells, the majestic voice going from cadence to cadence with the power and assurance of perfect art, and what is more, of perfect humanity.

Lovers of string music will find with delight another number interpreted by the famous Flonzaley Quartet on a new Victrola record. It is a minuet from Mozart's "Quartet in D Major." Mozart wrote many minuets. Perhaps the most famous, and even today, it may be, the most popular in the whole world (excepting Paderewski's) is to be found in his opera, "Don Giovanni." And this is one of the most graceful the most courtly, the most imaginative of them all. Turning from the sublime to music in a lighter vein we may even there find refreshment now and then. So we mention a couple of songs by Esther Walker, a young comedienne who presents them on the first of her Victor records. "Sahara" ("Well Soon Be Dry Like You") is a timely take-off on the coming event that will make the country "sure nough" dry. The wails of the desert and the strummings of barbaric instruments introduce a grotesque lament for the departed "Whiskey, winner, gun." An orchestral accompaniment produces a sly and very fetching rhythm.

On the reverse of the record she sings "Nobody Knows" (And Nobody Seems to Care)—a coaxing little ditty in Miss Walker's best style.

First appearance of Selvin's Novelty Orchestra on Victor Dance Records. In a medley fox trot, adapted from "Mandy," one of the successes of the Ziegfeld Follies of 1919, this orchestra makes its Victor debut. And this choice selection of a popular fox trot is then followed by a calculated let everybody know that six very live, gentlemen are here with both feet—and all the necessary instruments.

On the reverse of the record the same orchestra plays "Novelty One-Step." It rags and jazes on Rubenstein's "Melody in F" (of all pieces!) and then goes on to rag "The Old Oaken Bucket" at such a pace that you nearly dance your bones out of your skin.

Then the ever-popular Joseph C. Smith's Orchestra comes along with "Waiting"—a medley fox trot on a new Victor record. It is a slow, rolling, footswooty rhythm which is its own invitation to get up on the floor and trot. Things soon awake and happen—several at once. The composition, from the musical show "Listen Lester," introduces "Waiting" and "Show a Little Something New."

Turn the record over and brace us for the medley one-step, "Mammy O' Mine." You must do it or you'll get left. A South African war dance is modified mild alongside of it. The joy of youth is in every note of this one-step which introduces "Mammy O' Mine" and "Dixie Is Dixie Once More."

A sprightly song of an American soldier and his French sweetheart is sung on a Victor record just out by Billy Murray—"And I'd Say Oo-I-I-I Wee-Wee." It is about a Yank who knows only a few words of French, but the couple seem to get along very well. The song is a lively one, the melody light and dancing, and the blood will quicken when you hear it.

On the other side of the record the American Quartet sings "Dixie Is Dixie Once More." It celebrates the return of a Southern regiment. The selection beams and ends with a fine burst of harmony. Whistling, trombones and jazz effects appear in the accompaniment.

You'll enjoy hearing Monroe Silver on a new Victor record get off "Cohen at the Picnic." Those who went to Cohen's wedding and followed the course of his honeymoon will learn here that he now has a raft of children. Many of them crowd onto the "River" that is to take them—and something happens that begins the day's tribulations which make the record so amusing.

The Victor Light Opera Company has culled the gems from the two choicest musical comedies of the season—"Listen Lester" and "Somebody's Sweetheart" and presents them on a Victor record just issued. Those from "Listen Lester" include: Chorus, "Show a Little Something New"; tenor solo, "Oh! You Sweet Stuff"; soprano and trio, "When Shadows Fall"; duet, "I'd Love To," and soprano and chorus, "Waiting."

Those from "Somebody's Sweetheart" are: Chorus, "Tangle"; baritone solo, "On Wings of Doubt"; duet, "In the 'Old-Fashioned Way'"; tenor solo, "Girl of My Heart"; and chorus, "It Gets Them All."

Think of the range of music to suit all tastes, to satisfy all moods, that the present age affords—from the noblest masterpieces, interpreted by the greatest artists in all the world, to the latest hits direct from Broadway—all made possible to hear by your own fire-side because of the Victrola.

And even though the Victrola is not among your valued possessions, its endless variety of music may be heard as it appears new every month, if you but visit your nearest Victor dealer and ask him to play any selections you wish to hear.
